BOARD OF SELECTMEN

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF SELECTMEN

On March 6, 1973, the Board of Selectmen reorganized, welcoming Arnold J. Lovering and William R. Murphy as its newest members. The Board elected Thomas F. Markham, Jr., Chairman; Arnold J. Lovering, Vice-Chairman; William R. Murphy, Clerk. The other two members are Paul C. Hart and Gerald J. Lannan. The Boards' first action was the reappointment of Clement McCarthy to his third one-year term as Town Counsel, and the reappointment of Evelyn M. Haines to her second one-year term as Administrative Assistant to the Selectmen.

In 1973 the Selectmen adopted comprehensive procedures for meetings which have aided in their efficiency in conducting their regular and special meetings, as well as public hearings.

Highlights of the year's activities are included in the following paragraphs . . .

As the Licensing Authority, the Board held its usual hearings on the issuance of various licenses and also renewed licenses which come under their jurisdiction.

The proposed Charter change appeared on the 1973 ballot and was narrowly defeated. The Home Rule Advisory Committee has, however, furnished steps which could be adopted either through a vote of the Board of Selectmen or by Town Meeting action to implement some phases of this Charter.

The 1973 Annual Town Meeting was completed in nine sessions, which was the longest recorded session of Town Meeting. Among the many issues considered, the Annual Town Meeting authorized funds for:

A Police Station Addition; restoration of Crystal Lake; the acquisition of land in East Chelmsford for a Fire Station in East Chelmsford; recreational equipment and material for children, which was constructed at the Robert's Property on Old Westford Road; an Assistant Dog Officer; Insurance coverage to indemnify the Selectmen in law suits brought against them while acting in good faith and persuance of their duties; installation of flashing yellow light with sign attached to read "School Buses Entering Ahead" at ten School locations; Bylaw to change the Annual Town Meeting and Town Elections -- Town Elections to be the first Monday in April and Town Meeting the first Monday in May; Amendment for zoning bylaws to include Flood Plain District; longevity benefits to all permanent employees of the Police and Fire Departments; Revenue Sharing Funds were applied to the Police and Fire Department salaries and Article 48, a sidewalk on the southerly side of Acton Road.

The Board of Selectmen called a Special Town Meeting for October 1, 1973 for the purposes of allowing the Towns' people to vote on some seventeen articles of the warrant; however, only the first three articles of this warrant were voted on, as a quorum could not be secured to vote on the remainder of the articles. Therefore, the majority of these articles will appear in the 1974 Warrant.

Both the Chelmsford and Westford Selectmen have signed an agreement favoring the establishment of the Chelmsford/Westford Town Line, as currently described by roadstones. The Middlesex County Commissioners have been requested to survey the entire boundaries from Tyngsboro to Carlisle, in order to provide both Towns with a plan for study and a possible change in the existing line. The Selectmen perambulated these boundaries as prescribed by the Massachusetts General Laws during the month of July.

In accordance with recommendations received from the Crystal Lake Restoration Committee, the Board of Selectmen signed an agreement with the firm of Fay, Spofford & Thorndike, Inc., to cover Phase One for the restoration of Crystal Lake, which are as follows:

Dam constructed, emergency spilling, and Crystal Lake bottom; all of which have been approved by the State Flood Relief Board for reimbursement. The following items are under review by the Crystal Lake Committee and are reimbursable by the State:

Reconstruction of Inlet Control Structure, repairs to inlet canal, dike, and cleaning inlet canal; repairs to masonry walls and reconstruction of control structures in Mill Canal; construction of trash rack in Stony Brook and cleaning a portion of Stony Brook; Excavating and regrading Lake bottom to a nine foot depth.

Articles will appear in the next special or annual Town Meeting for the above items and also the authorization to take the small island in Crystal Lake by eminent domain.

Application for Spot Improvements to Central Square in the amount of $80,000 was approved by the Massachusetts Department of Public Works and as a result the Selectmen selected Storch Engineering to perform the Engineering work on this project. This project is 100% state reimbursable and will require Town Meeting action to authorize short term borrowing. As a temporary measure, the Selectmen implemented the Summer Street Bypass in hopes that it would curtail some of the traffic congestion in the Central Square area.

In view of the fact that the Middlesex County Training School was closed this year, the Selectmen expressed their desire to obtain these facilities for municipal purposes. The Selectmen, with Middlesex County Personnel, conducted tours of the facilities with Town Departments and Committees to find that there is a definite need to use these facilities for municipal purposes. The Selectmen requested Representative Bruce Freeman to file legislation on behalf of the Town of Chelmsford for the purpose of acquiring this facility for the future development of the Town.

The Governor signed into law Chapter 326 of the Acts of 1973, Redistricting of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, which split Chelmsford into three districts. The Selectmen filed an Amendment to this redistricting bill; however, this Amendment was never brought before the Legislature for a vote. This new law will take effect in 1974.

The Selectmen have continued with the recycling project this year and publicly endorsed this project.

This year, William R. Murphy, Clerk of the Board of Selectmen, was elected as a member of the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts League of Cities and Towns. The League represents some 23 cities and 128 towns of the Commonwealth; maintaining a central bureau of information and research on municipal topics, fostering conferences of municipal officials and actively encouraging/opposing legislation which affects the cities and towns of the Commonwealth.

As the Town Meeting voted funds for a Labor Relations Advisor, the Selectmen advertised the position and appointed the firm of Murphy, Lamere and Murphy, of 540 Granite Street, Braintree, Massachusetts, to negotiate the Police, Fire and Highway Department Contracts.

As the Town continues to grow, problems become more complex and a need for full-time employees becomes necessary. To this end, we have gone on record as indicating that the Town needs and demands a full-time Building Inspector, Town Engineer, and Purchasing Agent; funds for which will have to be voted at the 1974 Town Meeting. As our times change, the needs of the Community change, and it is the responsibility of a Board, such as ours, to develop and proceed forward to keep up with the present and future times. One of the most important duties of the Board of Selectmen is to appoint members to various Town Committees. With ever increasing demands being made upon our time, whether it be regular work or volunteer work, it becomes more difficult to find dedicated people who are willing and able to serve. The Town has been very fortunate that many interested and reliable Town's people are now serving as members of these Committees. New Committees established are: Water Consolidation Study Committee, Tree Department Study Committee, Goals Committee, Selectmen's Sub-Committee on the Energy Crisis, Cable Television Advisory Committee, and the Sidewalk Study Committee.

A great deal of thanks goes to all Town Employees, Officials, and Committees for their untiring efforts to make our Government work effectively. We believe that through their efforts, Chelmsford has established a good sound basis by which we can expect a continued growth in our Town. We urge all citizens of the Community to review the Town Reports and above all, vote and attend Town Meetings.

BALLOT SUMMARY:

Upon approval by the voters, this Charter will become effective on July 1, 1973. The proposed Charter retains Chelmsford's Selectmen-Open Town Meeting form of government. The Open Town Meeting is divided into two sessions: One in April to concentrate on financial matters and one in October to concentrate on by-laws and zoning matters. The Charter changes the positions of Tree Warden, Cemetery Commissioners, Park Commissioners, Library Trustees, Constable, and Varney Playground Commissioners to appointive offices. It provides the Selectmen with an Executive Assistant whose basic duties are specified in the Charter. A Long-

Range Planning Committee is established and a provision is made for centralized purchasing for all town departments.

The polls will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and to meet in the Chelmsford High School Gymnasium on the following Monday, the twelfth day of March, 1973 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, then and there to act upon the following articles, viz:

*Mr. Thomas Thorstensen moved to amend Section 2A, Section D, Item No. 2 to read: Librarian MLS (Assistant) 1973 — $8,500.00 1974 — $8,797.00

Mr. Roger Welch, Library Trustee, spoke in favor of the above amendment.

Mr. Richard Sullivan stated that the main motion would violate state law and the town's contract obligations. He stated that righting of pay inequities would not be accomplished, and asked the Town to consider quick calculations for a corporation of $31,000,000 carefully.

Town Librarian David Panciera requested permission to speak, even though he is not a registered voter of the Town. This was granted. He urged the Townspeople to vote for Mr. Thorstensen's amendment.

Upon a voice vote the amendment for Section 2A, Section D, Item No. 2 passed. Vote questioned — A hand vote was taken: YES — 289 NO — 265 It was so voted.

Mr. Gravelle moved to stop debate. Mr. McDermott asked to be heard before debate was closed. Mr. Gravelle changed his motion to stop debate until after Mr. McDermott spoke. Mr. McDermott stated that no salaries could be raised by action on Article 3 if this motion as amended was passed.

A vote to stop debate was taken, 2/3 vote required. YES — 397 NO — 190 It was so voted.

A vote was taken on the main motion under Article 2A, as amended. It was so voted, by voice.

Mr. Markham moved for reconsideration of Section E of Article 2A. Motion declared out of order.

Mr. McDermott moved that we take Article 78 out of order.

Mr. Stanley Keturakis moved that the next session of Town meeting be held Monday, March 26, 1973 at 7:30 P.M. It was so voted.

A check with Town Clerk showed that the main motion had not been reconsidered; therefore Mr. Markham's motion for reconsideration of Section E of Article 2A was acceptable. After considerable discussion about guidelines for salary increases Mr. Hilliard asked Mr. Markham to withdraw his motion, so that he (Hilliard) could move for reconsideration of the entire Article. Mr. Markham did not withdraw his motion. On a voice vote the motion to reconsider Section E of Article 2A was defeated.

Mr. Markham moved for reconsideration of Section F & G of Article 2A (Police & Fire Department wages). Town Counsel was asked for his opinion. He stated that no matter what was voted at this meeting we must pay the Police and Fire Chief the salaries recommended by the Finance Committee and computed on the basis of the legislation cited as soon as he received an affirmative reply from the Cost of Living Council. These increases will be granted either through town meeting action or court litigation.

Reconsideration of Sections F & G of Article 2A was defeated by a voice vote.

Mr. Lovering moved for adjournment at 10:40 P.M., until Monday, March 26, 1973 at 7:30 P.M. in the High School Gymnasium.

It was so voted.

The Moderator reinstated Mr. McDermott's motion to take the school committee budgets out of order. Mr. Jean-Paul Gravelle objected to this motion suggesting that we take action on Article 3 with an amendment which he had prepared. A voice vote was taken on Mr. McDermott's motion to take the School Committee budgets out of order. Motion defeated. The decision was doubted. A hand vote was taken:

YES — 353

Motion defeated.

UNDER ARTICLE 3. Mr. Philip McCormack moved the Town vote to raise and appropriate such sums of money as may be needed to defray town charges for the current fiscal period retroactive to January 1, 1973. The Moderator explained that he would try to complete Article 3 one department at a time.

Markham, Jr. of the Board of Selectmen requested defeat of Mr. Gravelle's amendment. Mr. Gravelle defended his amendment, admitting minor errors. Mr. John Balco spoke in favor of Mr. Markham's request for defeat of the amendment. Mr. Philip Anderson asked if Mr. Gravelle's amendment and the finance committee's recommendations could be considered against each other, department by department.

1.1 No person or individual, corporation or other type of entity shall open a trench in, or disturb the surface, of, any existing street or way, or any proposed way or street in a proposed subdivision, for any of the following purposes, but not restricted thereto, of installing, repairing, and/or maintaining any duct, conduit, sleeve, pipe or other structure to be used for the distribution or transmission of wastewater or sewage, surface or storm water, potable water, brook or water course, gas, oil or any of its by-products in any form, electrical power or service, telephone or telegraph service, until a permit therefor is granted by the Board of Selectmen and Highway Superintendent except in an emergency as determined by the Highway Superintendent. This By-Law does not apply to the placing or replacing of poles.

1.2 Permits will be issued only in accordance with this By-Law to the owners of the Utility or the Utility Company by whom the utility installation is wanted, or others as described in Paragraph 1.1, or to their duly authorized agents only; no permit shall be issued to the contractor. All work covered by permit shall commence within one (1) month of date of issuance of permit and be pursued diligently until completed. Time of completion shall be stated in permit and upon expiration of said time a new permit will have to be issued under conditions and terms as required by this By-Law and its amendments in effect at the renewal date. For the purpose of this By-Law a CATV company or corporation shall be considered a Utility.

1.3 The owners of the Utility and/or Utility Company or others, as described in Paragraph 1.1, shall exercise this permit subject to all the rules and regulations made from time to time by the State Department Public Safety, Department of Public Works, and Department of Public Utilities, and nothing in this permit shall be construed as authorizing any installations or maintenance thereof except in strict conformity with all federal, state, and municipal laws, ordinances, by-laws, and regulations.

1.4 No work shall begin or continue in any street or way unless the permit, legally and duly issued, or a duplicate copy, be on the site of the work and shall be shown to any police officer or other authorized municipal person upon request thereby. A legally and duly issued permit shall be a permit which states the name and business address of the applicant, a specific date of issuance, a specific date of completion, and a general description of the work to be done that is signed by not less than three (3) Selectmen and the Highway Superintendent.

1.5 All applications for any permit shall be in quadruplicate. All applications and work to be done under any permit issued must meet with the approval of the Selectmen Majority and Highway Superintendent or a Unanimous vote of the Selectmen.

1.6 If, during the progress of the work to be done, under the initial permit, any existing duct, conduit, sleeve, pipe or other structure used for the distribution or transmission of wastewater or sewage, surface or storm water, potable water, brook or water course, gas, oil or any of its by-products in any form, electrical power or service, telephone or telegraph service, is encountered and must be relocated and/or modified in any way so that the work will function properly and as intended upon completion, a separate legally and duly issued permit must be obtained for each proposed relocation and/or modification.

If work is to be done on more than one (1) way or street, a separate legally and duly issued permit must be obtained for each way or street. Permits required under Paragraph 1.6 and the first renewal of any legally and duly issued permit are not subject to the application fee as provided for in this Paragraph. Failure of work to commence within one (1) month of the date of issuance automatically voids the permit and will result in forfeiture of ten percent (10%) of the application fee to the Town of Chelmsford.

1.8 All outstanding permits, issued by the Board of Selectmen, Highway Superintendent, or any other town governmental board, committee, or body which had and/or had authorization to issue permits to open a trench in, or disturb the surface of, any existing and/or proposed way or street, that have not been exercised, either in whole or in part, prior to this By-Law being adopted by the Town and filed with the Secretary of State and/or Attorney General of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to be effective, shall be void.

2.1.9 Each sheet of the plans shall be signed and stamped by a Registered Land Surveyor and Registered Professional Engineer with seals of registration for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Those portions of the plan representing engineering design shall be prepared by a Registered Professional Engineer.

2.1.10 A letter size locus plan of the work at a scale of two thousand (2000) to an inch, in quadruplicate, must accompany the permit application.

2.1.11 Eight (8) prints, dark line on white background, of sheets shall be submitted with the application.

2.2 If deemed necessary by the Selectmen, Highway Superintendent, or their duly authorized representative, a baseline or centerline of construction for both vertical and horizontal control of the work will be established prior to construction by a Registered Land Surveyor. This baseline or centerline will be shown on final construction plans. No variation from the baseline or centerline of construction to be made unless written permission is given by the Selectmen, Highway Superintendent, or their duly authorized representative. All plans are to be submitted to the Selectmen and Highway Superintendent for review prior to issuance of permit.

2.3 When proposed location of installation is in the sidewalk area or in any other location where accuracy of bounds, bound points, property markers, etc., may be jeopardized, the Highway Superintendent shall require that a Registered Land Surveyor locate and properly reference tie all such points prior to construction. Upon completion of all construction, the bounds, bound points, property markers, etc., will then be checked against the reference ties and any variation of said points will be duly recorded by the Registered Land Surveyor. A legible copy of all field notes and ties recorded by the Registered Land Surveyor, upon completion of his work, become the property of the Highway Superintendent. Original Field notes are to be available for examination by duly authorized representatives of the Highway Superintendent upon request.

Section 3 — Notification of Commencement

Written notification of one (1) week prior to commencing construction will be required. This notification shall be sent to the Highway Superintendent and Police Chief, and shall contain the name, address, and telephone number of the contractor or party which is to perform the work as well as the telephone number for emergency calls which may arise when the contractor is absent from the work site.

Section 4 — Work Hours

4.1 All work to be performed hereunder shall be done between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. provided, however, that different work hours for the performance of such work may be agreed upon or required for good cause by the Highway Superintendent and said requirement shall be stated in writing at the time of issuance of the permit.

4.2 No Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday work will be allowed unless an emergency or accommodation arises, and permission is given by the Highway Superintendent. Said permission may be granted orally; however, a written confirmation that such permission has been granted shall be made by the Highway Superintendent as soon as practicable thereafter.

4.3 In regard to Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday work the Highway Superintendent shall determine whether an emergency or accommodation situation exists. Emergency is an unforeseen combination of circumstances which calls for immediate action, a pressing necessity.

4.4 No excavation, trenching, etc., shall be allowed in any street or way, accepted or unaccepted or proposed way or street, between November 15 and April 1, except in the case of an emergency, which shall be determined by the Highway Supt.

Section 5 — Photographs

5.1 If required by the Selectmen and/or Highway Supt. a sufficient number of photographs must be taken prior to the excavation to serve as reference to insure restoration of designated areas to their former condition.

5.2 The required photographs within the work limits shall be taken prior to the commencement of the work, and shall be of size, type, quality and number as determined by the Highway Superintendent.

5.3 All expenses incurred by the requirements of this Section shall be borne by the permittee.

Section 6 — Inspector

6.1 A full time inspector shall be assigned to each trench opening or excavation site in any way or street, accepted or unaccepted, or proposed way or street, by the Highway Supt.

6.2 The inspector's duties will be as determined by the Highway Supt. In general, the inspector will be the Town's agent who will ensure compliance of the work with the provisions of this By-Law.

6.3 The inspector will file daily written reports with the Highway Supt. and a copy to the Selectmen and will be responsible for reporting any violations of the provisions of this By-Law in said daily written reports.

6.4 Safety and the use of proper construction methods and/or techniques are not the responsibility of the inspector.

6.5 Failure of the Highway Supt. to assign an inspector to a trench opening or excavation site, in any way or street, accepted or unaccepted, or proposed way or street, does not, in any way relieve the permittee of responsibility of full compliance with the provisions of this By-Law.

6.6 The fee and incidental expenses of the inspector shall be borne by the permittee and payable, by check or money order, to the Town of Chelmsford.

6.7 The permittee is solely responsible for notifying the Highway Supt. in writing of any scheduled testing of any work under permit at least forty-eight (48) continuous hours prior to the time of the scheduled test. Failure of the permittee to do so could result, if deemed necessary by the Highway Supt. in the retesting of those portions of the work for which the testing was unobserved by the Highway Supt. or his duly authorized representative.

Section 7 — Safety

7.1 The permittee shall so prosecute his work that traffic, both pedestrian and vehicular, will be maintained over and through the work with a maximum of safety and convenience.

7.2 Every opening made in a street or way, accepted or unaccepted, or proposed street or way, shall be enclosed with sufficient barriers, sufficiently lighted at night, and posted with necessary signs to guard the public against all accidents, from the beginning to the completion of the work. The responsibility of maintaining sufficient safety features around the work is solely that of the permittee, and in no way the responsibility of the Town of Chelmsford.

7.3 Uniformed police shall be present to maintain two-way traffic in the roadway during the hours which work is being done under permit.

7.3.1 At least one (1) week prior to commencing construction the permittee shall give written notification with all pertinent information regarding the work to the Police Chief so that the Police Chief may prepare a roster of police officers assigned to the excavation site.

7.3.2 If, in his opinion and judgment, the Police Chief deems necessary the assigning of more than one (1) police officer to the excavation site, he may do so in the best interest of public safety.

7.3.3 The permittee may request a waiver, of the requirement for uniformed police at the excavation site, in writing to the Police Chief, who must evaluate the request for a waiver and reply to the permittee in writing within five (5) days of receipt of request for waiver.

7.3.3.1 If the Police Chief grants the waiver, and at some future time during the progress of the work the Police Chief visits the excavation site and deems necessary that a uniformed police officer be present to maintain two-way traffic in the roadway, the Police Chief may immediately rescind, suspend or modify this waiver.

7.3.3.2 A request for a waiver does not relieve the permittee in any way of the responsibility of having uniformed police at the excavation site until said waiver has been granted in writing by the Police Chief.

7.3.4 The fee and incidental expenses of the uniformed police assigned to the excavation site shall be borne by the permittee and payable by check or money order, to the Town of Chelmsford.

7.4 Pavement, fire hydrants, catch basins, and sidewalk areas shall be kept reasonably clear of excavated materials. Pedestrians must be able to walk by or a boardwalk must be constructed over any excavation authorized hereunder.

7.5 Proper access at all times should be maintained to both public and private property, with all driveways and streets to be opened at night. In cases where necessity deems a roadway trench be kept open overnight, express written permission from the Highway Supt. and written notification to the Police and Fire Departments will be necessary.

7.6 Any snow or ice condition that may occur during construction must be properly controlled through sanding and/or salting or plowing to points two hundred fifty (250) feet beyond either end limits of the construction area, unless otherwise decided by the Highway Supt. or his duly authorized representative.

7.7 The permittee shall be responsible for instructing all employees in the principles of First aid and safety and in the specific operational procedure necessary to prevent accidents. The permittee shall provide for the availability and maintenance of adequate first aid supplies at the excavation site at all times.

Section 8 — Construction Standards

8.1 Grassed Areas. Any grassed areas, where entered and disturbed, either public or private, shall be properly compacted as hereinafter described and loamed to a minimum depth of six (6) inches, seeded and fertilized. The permittee is responsible for maintaining these areas until a satisfactory crop of grass has been grown to the satisfaction of the Highway Supt. The seed shall be sown only between the periods from April 15 to June 1 and from August 15 to October 15 or as directed by the Highway Supt.

8.2 Trees. The issuance of the permit does not authorize the trimming or removal of any trees or shrubs. The necessary removal of any tree shall be under the supervision of the Tree Warden or his duly authorized representative. Hand digging shall be required around the roots of trees and shrubs.

8.3 Fences. Any fence requiring removal for satisfactory prosecution of the work shall be removed and then reset by the permittee. The materials removed shall be utilized in the fence reset except, where necessary, new posts and bases shall be furnished by the permittee. Any materials damaged or lost during or subsequent to the removal shall be replaced by the permittee at his own expense. All new materials required shall be equal in quality and design to the materials in the present fences.

8.4 Saw cutting of Pavement. Where required by the Highway Supt. the roadway and/or sidewalk pavement are to be saw cut to neat, true lines as directed. All newly resurfaced roadways shall be saw cut. Such cutting shall be to a depth below the pavement as to prevent tearing of the surface when the excavation is begun.

8.5 Maximum Trench Opening. The excavation is to be kept as neat as existing conditions permit and not more than one hundred fifty (150) feet to be left open at any time during working hours, or more than twenty (20) feet of trench to be left open overnight without written permission of the Highway Superintendent.

8.6 Roadway Dust Control. The permittee shall furnish and apply calcium chloride as a dust control material at all locations where directed by the Highway Supt. or his duly authorized representative. Calcium chloride shall be uniformly applied either by hand methods or by approved spreading devices at a rate of no more than one (1) pound per square yard.

8.7 Unsuitable material. All excavated material is to be discarded unless otherwise suitable, and if not suitable, to be replaced with the following material acceptable to the Highway Supt. or equivalent; namely, $\frac{1}{2}$ " to $\frac{3}{4}$ " crushed processed gravel for the bed and also above the item placed in the excavation, for a depth not less than six (6) inches below the bottom most portion of the item and for a depth not less than six (6) inches above the top most portion of the item, to be standard. Any excavated materials not required or not suitable for backfilling shall be removed from the site of the work and disposed of by the permittee. The permittee will not be allowed to store excess excavated material on the public highways. All excavated material which is not to be used in a reasonable amount of time, as determined by the Highway Supt. or his duly authorized representative, for backfilling, shall be hauled away and stored, until such time as the material is to be used for backfilling, by the permittee.

8.8 Disposal of Discarded Materials. The permittee shall be held responsible for all discarded materials, rubbish and debris that are dumped or fall within the limits of the project. Such materials shall be removed from the site and disposed of at the permittee's expense.

8.9 Backfill Material. The backfill material used shall be of a quality satisfactory to the Highway Supt. and shall be free from large or frozen lumps, wood, organic matter and other extraneous material and shall contain no boulders or broken ledge larger than one half ($\frac{1}{2}$) cubic yard. All stones, boulders, or broken ledge greater than one (1) cubic foot in size must be a minimum of one and one half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) feet above the topmost portion of the item placed in the excavation and a minimum of two (2) feet below the pavement surface grade.

8.10 Sheeting. Lumber sheeting shall be installed where trench excavation would cause failure to adjacent pavement. Unless otherwise directed, sheeting shall be driven to such depth as to be two (2) feet below normal excavation. The sheeting shall be securely and satisfactorily braced to withstand all pressures to which it may be subjected and shall be sufficiently tight to prevent any flow of water or material into the work space. Upon completion of the work, sheeting shall be driven down or cut off eighteen (18) inches below pavement grade and left in place, or as directed by the Highway Supt. No sheeting may be left so as to create a possible hazard to the safety of the public, obstruction to flow of water, or a hindrance to traffic of any kind.

8.11 Compaction of Backfill. Backfill shall be uniformly distributed in successive layers, each layer being thoroughly compacted before the succeeding layer is placed. The entire width of the trench shall be mechanically or hand tamped in six (6) inch lifts, a minimum of two (2) feet above the utility installation, and mechanically tamped the remainder of the fill in lift depths not greater than two (2) feet.

8.12 Grading, Rolling and Finishing. The areas required to be graded shall be raked or machine graded to remove all stones and other unsatisfactory material and shall then be machine rolled. Any depressions which may occur during the rolling shall then be filled with additional suitable material and the surface then regraded and rolled until true to the required lines and grades. All ruts shall be eliminated but imprint of tire tracks will be permitted. The fine grading of the subgrade for the area on which roadway pavement is to be laid shall be finished at the required depth below and parallel to the proposed pavement surface.

8.13 Bituminous Concrete Pavement Replacement.

8.13.1 Class A Roadways. Class A Roadways shall be considered as main arteries within the Town, State Routes, roadways which fall under Chapter 90 jurisdiction, any newly resurfaced roadway and any other roadway considered in Class A condition by the Highway Supt.

8.13.2 Class A Roadways, Summer. In the pavement area, the trench shall be backfilled with processed gravel from a depth of twenty (20) inches to four (4) inches below the pavement grade and four (4) inch bituminous concrete temporary patch laid and maintained by the permittee for a minimum period of sixty (60) days and a maximum period of seventy-five (75) days. At this time the trench shall be excavated to a depth of eight (8) inches. The pavement shall then be cut in a neat, true line at all vertical plane limits of the trench within the roadway and a six (6) inch slab of 3,500 PSI, high early strength reinforced concrete constructed in the trench areas. Reinforcing shall be #5 bars at six (6) inches on center running in the direction of the trench. The bars shall be set a minimum of two (2) inches above the lower limit of the concrete and no more than three (3) inches above the same plane. The concrete is to set for a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours, at which time the pavement shall be restored with two (2) inches of Bituminous Concrete Type I, consisting of a one (1) inch base course and a one (1) inch top course graded to meet the existing pavement.

8.13.3 Class A. Roadways, Winter. In the pavement area, the trench shall be filled with suitable unfrozen material to a point twenty (20) inches below roadway grade. Sixteen (16) inches of processed gravel shall then be placed over the compacted fill and four (4) inches of temporary patch shall be placed and maintained by the permittee for the remainder of the winter months. In the spring, or as directed by the Highway Supt., when the ground is frost free, the trench shall be excavated to a depth of eight (8) inches. The pavement shall be cut in a neat true line at all vertical plane limits of the trench within the roadway, and a six (6) inch reinforced concrete slab constructed and the pavement shall be restored with two (2) inches of Bituminous Concrete Type I as described in Subparagraph 8.13.2.

8.14 Reinforced concrete Pavement Replacement. If reinforced concrete pavement is encountered during the work, it shall be replaced in accordance with acceptable construction standards or as directed by the Highway Supt.

8.15 Bituminous Concrete Sidewalk Replacement. When work is performed in sidewalk areas, the entire sidewalk shall be replaced as follows. The entire trench area shall be thoroughly compacted to a point nine (9) inches below the finish grade. Six (6) inches of compacted processed gravel sub-base shall then be placed. Forms shall be installed where deemed necessary to assist in securing proper alignment and adequate comp action of the base and surface courses. Bituminous Concrete Type I shall then be laid in two (2) courses to a depth of three (3) inches, each course consisting of one and one half (1½) inches. The walk shall have a pitch of three sixteenths (3/16) of an inch per foot of width to provide for proper drainage toward the gutter. The surface of each course shall be rolled with a self-propelled tandem roller weighing not less than one and one half (1½) tons and not more than five (5) tons. In places not accessible to a power roller, compaction shall be obtained by means of hand tampers weighing not less than fifty (50) pounds and having a tamping face not exceeding one hundred (100) square inches.

8.16 Concrete Sidewalk Replacement. When work is performed in concrete sidewalk areas, the entire sidewalk shall be replaced in accordance with acceptable construction standards or as directed by the Highway Supt.

8.17 Bituminous Concrete Berm. The construction requirements, dimensions and cross-section of bituminous concrete berm shall be as directed by the Highway Supt.

8.18 Curb. When work is performed adjacent to granite curbing, extreme care is to be taken to insure that curbing remains undisturbed both horizontally and vertically. Curbing which has been chipped, marred or cracked during construction shall be replaced when so directed by the Highway Supt. Disturbed curbing shall be reset to line and grade by accepted methods. The permittee shall be held responsible for any settlement or horizontal movement of granite curb due to washout or trench settlement after completion of construction for a period of time acceptable to the Highway Supt.

8.19 Time Limit for Sidewalk Paving. Sidewalk repaving and/or replacement must follow as close behind installation as conditions permit. Excessive lineal footage of sidewalk left unrepaired will not be allowed.

8.20 Disturbing Existing Utilities. The permittee shall exercise special care during excavation to avoid injury to underground structures such as water or gas mains, pipes, conduits, manholes, catch basins, etc. When necessary the permittee shall cooperate with representatives of public service companies in order to avoid damage to their structures by furnishing and erecting suitable supports, props, shoring or other means of protection. The permittee shall be liable for repair of any damage to such utilities, either public or private, to the satisfaction of the Highway Supt. The construction and/or reconstruction of any Town of Chelmsford catch basin or manhole shall be in accordance with the Town of Chelmsford standards.

Section 9 — Private Property

Liability for damage to private property abutting the construction and caused by the permittee, his agents or servants, shall be borne solely by the permittee performing the work.

Section 10 — Liability

The issuance of the permit to an individual Utility or the Utility Company and/or its agents, or others as described in Section 1, Paragraph 1.1 of this By-Law, shall constitute an agreement with the Town of Chelmsford, whereby the Utility or Utility and/or its agent, an individual, or others shall indemnify and save harmless the Town of Chelmsford against all claims for damages for injuries to persons or property, and against all costs, suits, and expenses and losses occasioned by or arising from entering streets and/or ways and from occupancy and use of said streets and/or ways, and further agree to pay all costs and damages which may be recovered against the Town of Chelmsford, by reason of entering said streets and/or ways on account of occupancy of said premises, and shall further be required to provide insurance therefor unless otherwise determined by the Selectmen and Highway Supt.

Section 11 — Enforcement Provisions; orders.

11.1 If an examination of the work reveals that it does not comply with or violates the provisions of this By-Law, the Selectmen and/or Highway Supt. shall notify and order in writing, the permittee and its duly authorized supervisor at the work site who shall take such appropriate measures as necessary to assure compliance with the provisions of this By-Law.

11.2 If a further examination of the work, not less than forty-eight (48) continuous hours after the issuance of orders, reveals that no positive action and/or appropriate measures are or were being taken by the permittee or its duly authorized supervisor at the work site to assure compliance with the provisions of this By-law, the Selectmen and/or Highway Supt. may rescind, suspend or modify, through the imposition of conditions, the permit.

11.3 Every order issued to enforce the provisions of this By-law shall be in writing and shall be served on the permittee and its duly authorized supervisor at the work site and/or all persons responsible for the violation of this By-law.

11.4 Every order issued to enforce the provisions of this By-law shall include a statement of the violation or defect, shall allot a reasonable time for any action necessary to effect compliance, and may suggest action which, if taken, will effect compliance with this By-law.

Section 12 — Hearings

12.1 Any person to whom any order to comply with the provisions of this By-law is issued or any person who objects to the issuance of a variance may request a hearing before the Selectmen and Highway Supt. or their designee by filing a written application within ten (10) days of the receipt of the order or within ten (10) days of the filing of notice of the granting of the variance.

13.2 Each day, or portion of a day, that any violation is allowed to continue shall constitute a separate violation of this By-Law.

Section 14 — Variances

14.1 The Selectmen and Highway Supt. upon their own initiative or upon application to them by any individual, Utility or others as described in Section 1, paragraph 1.1, after due notice and public hearing, may vary any provision of this By-law as they deem necessary with respect to any particular case when, in their opinion, the enforcement thereof would do manifest injustice or cause due hardship, provided that their decision shall not conflict with the spirit of this By-law. The burden of proof of the manifest injustice or causes of hardship shall be the responsibility of the applicant.

14.2 Variances, when granted, shall be in writing and shall be effective for not more than one (1) year. Notice of the grant of variance shall be filed with the Town Clerk within ten (10) days after the variance has been granted.

Section 15 — Severability

Each of these sections shall be construed as separate to the end that if any section or paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase thereof shall be held invalid for any reason, the remainder of that section and all other sections of this By-law shall continue in full force.

Any violation of these By-Laws shall be punished by a fine of not less than Five Dollars or more than Fifty Dollars unless otherwise specified.

It was so voted, unanimously.

UNDER ARTICLE 4. Mr. Thomas F. Markham, Jr. moved that the Town vote to adopt the following Alcoholic Beverage By-Law:

No person shall drink any alcoholic beverage, as defined in Chapter 138, Section 1 of the Massachusetts General Laws, while upon any public way or upon any way to which the public has a right of access or any place to which members of the public have access as invitees or licensees, any park, playground, conservation, school, or other property owned by the town, or private land or place without the consent of the owner or person in control thereof. As used in this By-Law, the word "drink" shall be defined as: to consume, or to have any opened or partially filled container of alcoholic beverage, on his person or under his immediate control.

Any person found in the act of violating any provision of this By-Law, may be arrested by a police officer without a warrant and shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars. All alcoholic beverages being used in violation of this By-Law shall be seized and safely held until final adjudication of the charge against the person or persons arrested or summoned before the court, at which time they shall be returned to the person entitled to lawful possession.

If any part or portion of this By-Law is found to be invalid, the remainder of this By-Law shall not be affected thereby.

Selectman Gerald J. Lannan spoke in favor of this By-Law.

Mr. Jean-Paul Gravelle questioned the presence of a quorum. A hand count was taken. There were 246 voters present.

Moderator Daniel J. Coughlin, Jr., called a fifteen minute recess. Another hand count was taken showing 247 voters present. The number of voters for the special Town meeting should have been 300. Moderator Daniel J. Coughlin stated, that the motions already passed before the question of a quorum are valid up to the question of quorum.

Mr. Thomas Markham moved for adjournment at 8:45 P.M., until Tuesday, October 9, 1973 at 7:30 P.M. in the High School Auditorium. The motion on Article 4 should be read at this meeting. It was so voted.

Nineteen hundred and seventy-three was a year of varied learning activities. It was a year of active, enthusiastic participation by all for the improvement of education for the children of Chelmsford.

Conducting a wide variety of instructional programs for over 9,000 pupils, working with the system's 512 professional and 296 non-professional staff members, operating its 13 buildings -- these are the obvious and routine tasks of the school system. In themselves these activities constitute a substantial challenge, but it is the careful attention to both routine and more demanding tasks that distinguishes Chelmsford as one of the outstanding school systems in the area. By and large these activities may be classified as those which help the students and staff to meet the constant challenge of finding new and better ways of doing things in the face of a changing society that poses new educational demands. To move apace with rapid changes in the educational field means a vast number of different things. It means first, helping teachers who have been trained for the educational tasks of the past to develop new understandings, attitudes, and skills. It also means developing and utilizing the many new instructional materials and techniques that are based on research in child development and the psychology of learning. Finally it means helping parents to understand and accept educational programs and techniques that may seem unfamiliar because they do not always match those which parents remember from their own educational experience.

Out of the awareness that every child has different needs has arisen an emphasis on realizing the goal of individualized instruction. True individualization occurs only when the real needs of students -- emotional and social as well as educational -- become the concern of the educator. The old policy of a "shotgun" approach to education -- one which aimed at the "average child" and hoped to hit a few on either side of the mean -- is no longer sufficient or philosophically sound; nor is it congruent with society's present emphasis on individual rights.

Planning teaching strategies and materials to permit students to progress according to their needs is no easy task. Planning for and teaching individual students requires a commitment of effort and time far in excess of the "normal school day." Perhaps the following excerpts which are taken from reports written by school personnel will help readers of this report to better understand some of the learning experiences their children are having in our schools today.

(From the Coordinator of Language Arts)

The primary concern of Chelmsford's language arts program is to develop and refine student command of that uniquely human communication tool known as language. For this reason, the language arts program seeks to develop in students an appreciation of their communications heritage, an awareness of the role which mass media plays in contemporary communications, and some insights concerning the probable communications patterns and media of the future. The pervasive role of mass media in today's world demands that both visual and verbal languages receive attention in the developmental English program. Verbal language (i.e. oral and written communication) remains, however, the special province and concern of the English program. The Chelmsford language arts program is, therefore, committed to developing in students an understanding of the nature of verbal communication; an appreciation of language and of its specialized applications in literature and in contemporary media; an awareness of various usage levels and their appropriate application; a respect for language and for its role as a vehicle of persuasion and evaluation; and an ability to communicate ideas, opinions, and feelings with precision and clarity.

Recent years have witnessed the evolution of a grades 1-12 Scope and Sequence chart for the coverage of language arts skills, the adoption of a contemporary language arts text series in grades 3-6, and a multi-level spelling program with options for intensive individualization in grades 1-6; the development of teacher-prepared text replacement materials for grades 1 and 2; and the preparation of extensive supplementary units in sentence building, dictionary skills, composition, advertising, mythology, etymology, and poetry for the elementary grades. Many of the latter units have been selected for inclusion in the appendix of the Massachusetts English Advisory Report in which guidelines for the teaching of English in the state of Massachusetts will be set forth.

A brief elementary workshop, conducted during the summer of 1973, updated the Skills Scope and Sequence Manuals and cross referenced all available visual and print media for the coverage of skills in grades 1-6. In addition, the grade 5 Advertising Unit was expanded, and detailed guidelines for its implementation were prepared.

Writing program guidelines and objectives are utilized in grades 3-9 to provide intensive coverage of developmental writing skills and numerous opportunities for creating writing projects. Highlights of the program include: weekly student writing and/or editing activities in a classroom-as-workshop setting; a variety of teacher responses in the form of class editing sheets, written comments, taped comments, individual conferences, and personalized spelling sheets; increased emphasis on student responsibility for careful editing of final drafts and expanded opportunities for student "publication" of successful, well edited work. Through the cooperation of the "Sentinel," a local newspaper, selected student writing is published on a weekly basis during the school year.

Steps toward increased individualization in grades 7-9 have taken several forms. Classroom laboratory materials designed in summer workshops held in 1971 and 1972, and augmented during 1973, provide reinforcement and remediation of language skills and are used in conjunction with the writing program. Learning activities packages are also in use to provide increased individualization in skills areas. In addition, teacher-developed units in writing, communications, and the short story are in use in grades 7 and 8.

Multi-media kits, developed primarily through Title III NDEA funding, are used in connection with ninth grade units on mythology, the Bible as literature, and Shakespeare. These kits have proved invaluable as resources for contract approaches to student learning. Workshops held in the summer of 1973 reorganized grade 9 curriculum components into sequential units to facilitate effective sequencing of developmental skills. During this workshop the Mythology and Bible as Literature units were completely rewritten to incorporate developmental writing and vocabulary development activities. In addition, diagnostic testing materials were extended to include grades 8 and 9.

The effective use at the Junior High School of innovative approaches such as team teaching, pupil contracts, visual composing, small group discussion, and role playing and drama activities has been incorporated into a sound instructional program that continues to attract the attention and interest of many visitors to the school system. As a result, Chelmsford Junior High School has, for the second year, been selected as a model site for a conference on teaching English in the junior high school grades.

In the Senior High School, reorganization has taken the form of a wide variety of semester length courses in which developmental language, writing, and speaking skills are organized under thematic, genre, or literary era course structures, whose objectives have been specified in terms of various ability and interest levels. These courses constitute an attempt to organize the curriculum into more effective units in preparation for movement into an elective English program in 1974-75. Notable among the units are those in individualized reading, which were expanded again this year. Options for student involvement in videotape and slide tape composing activities have been provided in many courses. In addition the sophomore year program provides students with opportunities to analyze the specialized visual and verbal language of mass media and engage in the planning and execution of videotape productions.

An interdisciplinary project involving grade 11 students in a joint English-Social Studies American Studies Course, now in its fourth year, has been expanded to six classes, and several elective offerings in creative writing and drama permit interested students in grades 10 through 12 to work together in areas of common interest. Five year plans call for increased attention to interdepartmental projects, considerable expansion of elective offerings, and increased attention to individualizing strategies.

At all grade levels, increased use has been made of visual media including film, videotape, transparencies, and filmstrips. In addition, tape recorders are being used in many classrooms, grades 3-12, to create classroom listening centers, to prepare taped evaluation of student writing, to develop remediating materials for students with usage difficulties, and to record student discussions for subsequent evaluation.

Current research into the problems of English instruction, the effects of the media revolution, and increasing emphasis on greater individualization of instruction have created the demand for a more vital and varied English program than schools have known in the past. In Chelmsford, every attempt is being made to meet this demand through the development of a relevant and contemporary program at all grade levels.

(From the Coordinator of Reading)

The goal of providing all pupils with the skill and desire necessary to read to the full limit of their capabilities has been set as a target for the "Right to Read" program and continues to be the primary concern of the Chelmsford School System.

In an attempt to accomplish this goal the reading department continues to employ a balanced program of instruction which regards the child as a teaching unit and recommends that classroom teachers use a variety of materials and methods to effectively meet the needs of each child.

In September of 1973 approximately eight hundred first graders entered the Chelmsford schools. A very small percentage of these children were already reading and received reading instruction at their particular level. Approximately two thirds of the students were ready for formal reading instruction and entered into a developmental reading program at a pre-primer level. The remaining third of entering first graders were deficient in the pre-school perceptual skills and received the necessary readiness instruction before entering into the formal reading act. A multi-basal approach with a strong supplementary phonics program is currently employed in all first grades. Individual skill materials and a variety of trade books for independent reading are provided to meet the widely differentiated reading needs of beginning readers.

In grades two and three a multi-basal system is the core of the reading program and from that core the teacher provides individualized reading instruction through the use of skill materials and a wide variety of trade books. This is the strengthening period of the primary level when the skills of decoding, vocabulary and comprehension are stressed. Pupils are taught to use sight vocabulary, phonics and contextual clues simultaneously to get meaning from the printed page.

The individualized reading approach is currently employed in the intermediate grades in an effort to improve individual reading practices. This program stresses self-selecting and self-pacing on the part of the pupils along with teacher prescribed skill instruction for each program participant in individual, group and whole class settings.

This is not a panacea program but an approach which should vary from system to system, school to school and room to room. If the success or failure of any approach depends upon the classroom teachers, and research indicates that this is true, then individual teaching styles must be respected if the goals of the program are to be accomplished. All teachers cannot and should not be expected to manage this approach in the same way. Individual teaching styles dictate management in the following areas:

1. Organizational Plan — Individual instruction can be successfully implemented in any type of organizational plan.

2. Class Size — It is easier for teachers to work with small groups in any program; but many teachers report success with large groups.
3. Time — Ample time must be allotted for reading instruction.
4. Materials — A variety of materials must be made available.
5. Record Keeping — Individual records noting pupil weaknesses and strengths are kept by teachers. They develop their own methods of record keeping.
6. Group Instruction — Small group instruction may be carried on for specific purposes. Whole class instruction also has a place in the program. Individual instruction is stressed at all times.
7. Conferences — Pupil-teacher conferences are scheduled throughout the year. The number and kinds of conferences should meet pupil and teacher needs.
8. Basic Textbooks — Basal instruction is definitely a part of this approach especially for the average readers who thrive on an orderly, sequential presentation of skills. A variety of basals at various levels should be made available to each teacher involved in the program.

The elementary teachers have long been committed to the philosophy of individualization and continue to tailor instruction to individual pupil and teacher needs. This is not a rite or a ritual which must be followed by all teachers; but merely an approach to individual instruction.

The Junior High School provides a developmental reading program for seventh, eighth and ninth grade students who are reading at an average or slightly below average level. Reluctant readers also participate in this program which is designed to increase reading competencies and interests of pupils who are about to enter secondary education. Formal and informal diagnostic testing is used as a blueprint for instruction and a variety of materials and methods are employed to increase individual reading performances.

A completely individualized reading program continues to operate at the High School level. This program is remedial in nature; but also services students who wish to improve their reading competencies.

Chelmsford's reading program is one of gradual and continuous growth, is balanced and designed to meet the needs of the above average, average and below average readers. In spite of this there are some pupils who fail to benefit from regular classroom instruction because of some physical, mental, emotional or neurological reason. Such pupils are serviced by remedial teachers and learning disability specialists.

Concern for these students who learn in a different way from most children led to the establishment of a summer school in 1973. The coordinators of mathematics and reading planned this project to care for special needs children who very often exhibit problems in one or both skill areas. The project took the form of an institute designed to up-grade pupil performance and to provide intensive instruction for classroom teachers who work with these children during the school year.

One hundred and sixty-six pupils from grade one through nine attended classes. Thirty teachers participated in the institute and received graduate credit from Lowell State College.

The Chelmsford Chapter of the Massachusetts Association for Children with Learning Disabilities provided assistance in the form of volunteer parent aides and furnished a full time nurse for the institute. Six students from the senior high school also volunteered their services during the six week period. This cooperative effort was successful and most rewarding to all participants.

The reading department continues to strive to provide a program of instruction which effectively and efficiently services all students in the system. A program with such characteristics should comply with the national goal of the 70's -- The Right to Read.

(From the Coordinator of Social Studies)

1973 will certainly be a year we will all remember. It was a year that was filled with crises both at home and abroad: Crises relating to governmental leadership and credibility that led to the resignation of the vice-president and the public's growing lack of confidence in the leadership and credibility of the president. Crises relating to energy resources and the use of these resources which led to the lowering of thermostats, long lines at gasoline pumps, spiraling prices, and unemployment. Crises relating to conflict resolution that resulted in still no peace in the Far East, the outbreak of another war in the Middle East, and terrorist activity in the British Isles as well as in other countries throughout the world. Coupled with all of these problems were the dire predictions of futurists who warn us to develop models of international law, expand and use wisely our energy and food resources, and to plan now for the twenty-first century.

How does one prepare young people to become intelligent participants in a society that is filled with the problems facing our high school seniors who have reached the age of majority, are voting, and are about to become wage earners and taxpayers, and at the same time prepare six year olds for the world they will face in the twenty-first century?

This is the tremendous challenge facing the Chelmsford schools in general and the social studies program in particular. For it is the responsibility of the social studies program to develop informed citizens fully aware of the need for insuring the dignity and worth of the individual, for personal involvement in improving the society they have inherited, and for recognizing the interdependence of all peoples. It is the social studies program in the Chelmsford Public Schools that helps students analyze what makes man human, how humans interact with one another and with their natural resources, and what affects the decisions people make whether related to the use of technology and the environment or with the kinds of people they select to represent them in government.

In order to deal with this educational challenge, social studies draws much of its content from the social science disciplines. Major ideas or concepts from anthropology, sociology, political science, and economics, as well as history and geography are introduced and developed in the social studies program. This is done in a carefully articulated and continuous program from the primary grades through high school. The program also develops analytical thinking skills that assist students in studying current issues and value dilemmas.

There were many indicators that the program was effective in 1973. Three Chelmsford High School students took politics out of the classroom and into the community as they campaigned for positions as selectmen and school committee members. Although unsuccessful the students dealt with the issues and were willing to share in the responsibility of our democracy. Many other high school students did field study in the community while others offered assistance to service agencies in our town. A small group of Chelmsford High School students planned to study and film a day in the life of their representative in Congress. Junior high school students, eager to develop a better understanding of the problems facing the early New England farmer, cultivated, planted, and harvested a small plot of land adjacent to the Garrison House. Other junior high school students visited the State House and discussed issues with their state representative and state senator. Many fifth grade students followed up a case study on whaling with letters to the International Whaling Commission as well as the local press and then studied the use of the environment and technology in their own community. Elementary school students raised over $3000.00 to provide "a future for every child" as part of the UNICEF trick or treat program and students in all grades raised over $1200.00 to help purchase the muster field at the Old Chelmsford Garrison House thus keeping it from becoming another housing development and in effect "guarding what their sires had won."

Some of the above activities may seem a bit unorthodox to those of us who went to school at an earlier time. But then the world that the six year old will face in the twenty-first century is quite different than the world we faced. In education and in the preparation for life of that six year old, the twenty-first century is now. It demands a different, more dynamic approach in the classroom.

Interestingly, however, while students participate in this "new" social studies program, their achievement, according to standardized tests that are not designed to specifically measure these approaches or programs, continues to increase. Chelmsford students score significantly above the national norms on such tests. They also have scored well above state average percentages in tests designed to measure citizenship goals. Most of this is possible because Chelmsford has a group of exceptional teachers who teach social studies and who are sensitive to the needs, interests, and abilities of their students. They are sincere and dedicated in their efforts to provide Chelmsford's young people with a program that will prepare them to become intelligent participants in a free society.

In examining where mankind is today, one can only hope that Chelmsford's youth will succeed where we have failed.

(Coordinator of Mathematics)

The primary focus of the Mathematics program in the Chelmsford School System is on making mathematics intellectually exciting and challenging. Our program regards mathematics as a system which encourages each student to think for himself, to understand mathematical concepts and to master the skills necessary to apply their understanding to problem solving situations.

The major objective of our program is to assist children in developing power to deal with mathematical ideas. The mathematics teacher's role is to help students develop several dimensions of thought: comprehension, recall, production, and evaluation.

Comprehension of the ideas presented is basic to success in mathematics. The content to which students are exposed, either orally or in writing, must be made meaningful to the child. He must be able to fit the concepts discussed into the framework of his existing knowledge. This involves grasping similarities and differences or noting other relationships.

The student is also required to have many ideas available for immediate recall. He must remember the subject matter in order to use it at another time. Complex ideas are fashioned from fundamental notions that are un-understood and retained. Memory plays an especially significant role, because mathematics is a sequential discipline. Mastery of a topic makes further advance possible. The learner's future study is jeopardized if he does not understand and remember concepts.

The student of mathematics also must produce -- to find solutions to mathematical problems. He must be able to generate ideas. Logical processes of deductive reasoning usually are appropriate when seeking solutions. However, some people use other processes of production. These include intuition, induction, analogy, trial and error, diagrammatic representation, and combinations of these. In all of these situations, individuals engage in thought processes directed toward reaching solutions or creating patterns of ideas new to them.

The evaluative thought process is basic to comprehension, recall, and production. Thinking individuals are on guard for instances of confusion, inaccuracy, unreasonableness, or illogical sequences of thought in material studied or in answers generated. Appraisal is crucial for clear thought.

Throughout the Chelmsford Mathematics Program there are carefully planned activities that help the pupil to maintain skill and understanding as well as to review earlier work. Many unusual mathematical topics are presented to stimulate interest and to serve as enrichment. Drill of basic facts is presented in various ways that make it more palatable to the children as well as to the teachers. Our program contains many unusual topics and devices that clarify the standard material; broaden children's knowledge of mathematics; and stimulate interest, creativity, and discovery. Planned exposure to the ideas involved helps children see mathematics as an ever-growing structure which releases new ideas from basic concepts and principles.

Chelmsford's program coordinates proven teaching techniques and the latest developments in learning theory with the precise concepts of modern mathematics. Our texts are written in a way that communicates the creative aspect of mathematics. At every stage children are encouraged to discover ideas for themselves, to look for interesting patterns and relationships, and to develop their own generalizations. New topics of interest to children are explored both because of their mathematical value and because they encourage children to put forth their best efforts.

Our program utilizes materials which are written from a modern point of view. Concepts are approached through an understanding of the over-all structure of mathematics, and their introduction is appropriately followed up by adequate drill for the mastery of skills. At each stage in the presentation of new concepts, attention is focused on how these concepts unfold from the basic principles presented earlier. Attention is also directed toward certain fundamental principles which later serve to unify the study of advanced mathematics. The interrelationships and structure within the system as well as the routine facts and algorithms are stressed throughout the program.

A coordinated effort has been made in the elementary schools to individualize the teaching of mathematics to students. Supplemental materials, manipulative devices, and skill building materials are being utilized in order to provide for different levels of ability. The child emerging from the elementary program should have a thorough grounding in both arithmetic and intuitive geometry.

The elementary mathematics program in Chelmsford reflects the following beliefs:

There are fundamental concepts of mathematics which, when isolated and presented clearly, provide the learner with helpful tools for furthering his knowledge.

At every level children are encouraged to think, to question, and to understand.

Although every generation should benefit from the learning of past generations, the creativity of each new generation must not be hampered by forcing, upon our pupils, patterns of thought which have served us well but which may be inadequate in the future.

Mathematics can be taught as it really is: A dynamic subject that holds extreme fascination for children. In our continuing endeavor to meet the needs of individual students, the elementary mathematics program has made progress toward individualizing its instruction. Although this aspect has been monitored very closely, the progress, enthusiasm and observations, to date, have been most encouraging. Individualizing instruction is currently going on, in varying degrees, in every elementary school.

Traditional education has long been criticized for forcing pupils to learn everything in the same way, at the same time. Individualized instruction provides a way for pupils to learn at their own rate, work at their own level, and use the method of learning best suited to their needs.

Two ideas of major importance in the teaching of elementary mathematics in the Chelmsford Public Schools are:

1. The classroom should be child-centered rather than teacher-centered. Since the ultimate source of all learning is experience, students learn most effectively by "doing" rather than by being told, by exploring and applying rather than by merely listening. Children should be actively involved.

2. Children at all levels of the elementary school should begin to learn mathematics from experience with physical objects. They should be given opportunity to explore with concrete objects and to discover patterns before going on to the abstract symbolic stages of mathematics.

At the secondary level there is a wide variety of mathematics courses offered. Some of these topics have become the foundations upon which applications to the sciences, engineering, and mathematics itself are built. Most of the topics covered in our secondary mathematics curriculum have become part of what every person should know in order to understand the complex world in which he lives. Many new materials, methods, and grouping practices are employed in the math program to best meet the needs of individuals.

The mathematics program at the junior high school level continued to provide the variety and type of courses and high caliber of teaching necessary to meet the individual needs of the student. Individualized learning packages continue to be developed and utilized. Teaching units constructed by staff members are also being introduced into the classrooms. Team teaching this year as in previous years is used for the benefit of the student. Various educational supplies and materials such as games, puzzles, and math lab equipment are being used to enhance the enrichment and remedial programs. The acceleration program continues on successfully.

This academic year the sequence of courses is Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II, a change from previous years when it was Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry. The comprehensive examination program in the 8th and 9th grades still proves to be of great value to both teachers and students.

In the fall of 1973 four calculators were purchased for use in the classroom. These calculators will be used at all class levels. Their purpose is to strengthen fundamental arithmetic calculations and improve student accuracy. They also create greater interest and heighten student motivation in mathematical computation.

The Junior High Mathematics League improved upon its impressive record of the previous year. It was first in its division and second best school district in the states. A Chelmsford student was high ninth-grade scorer in the state.

The Mathematics Department at the high school has completed several innovations this past year. Students concluded the first year of an Advanced Calculus course which provided them with two years of Calculus. A third level of first year Calculus was started due to the interest of students who have completed the regular four year mathematics program. The college Geometry course which has been enhanced by including transformational Geometry has proved very successful. The individualized general mathematics program was expanded. Continued use of the computer is being performed by students through the terminal tie-in with Nashoba Tech. The computer is used as a means to complement the existing mathematics curriculum. The important goals are for him to learn the effective use of a computer as a problem - solving tool and to gain an appreciation of the relationship between mathematics, computers, and problem solving. These objectives can be achieved by providing an efficient means for processing programs written by students.

The high school mathematics team finished first in its division and was invited to compete at the state level (finishing 5th) and New England competition (finishing 7th). For the second straight year, a student at Chelmsford High finished in the top twenty in math competition taken by over 5000 students throughout the state.

Mathematics is presented as a way of thinking. In the very process of learning the concepts, skills and uses of mathematics, the student will have had a valuable experience. What is valuable about the mathematics program in Chelmsford is not that it is new, but rather that it offers an opportunity to children of all abilities to learn mathematics in a more meaningful way than had heretofore been possible.

(From the Coordinator of Physical Education and Athletics)

The Department of Physical Education and Athletics provides four special programs within the structure of the entire curriculum. They include the Instructional Program, the Intramural Program, the Interscholastic Program, and the School Recreational Program.

The Instructional Program services the various grade levels of one through twelve. They include the activities of rhythmic, gymnastics, individual and dual activities and team sports. The depth and emphasis of the pursuit in each case is determined by the activity to be taught; the sex involved; the age level to be served; the skill or lack of skill demonstrated by groups; and the ability and experience of the instructor.

The various intramural programs provide an opportunity in a laboratory setting for the students to apply previously trained skills. The students are encouraged to participate in games, sports, and activities geared to their respective levels of abilities. Previously this program was concentrated at the secondary level. During the past year it has included schools from the upper elementary levels in basketball and softball.

The Interscholastic Program is identified with a greater enrichment opportunity. There is a strong identification with both the instructional and intramural programs. In most cases programs are offered at the varsity, junior varsity, and freshman levels. The boys' interscholastic program offers a total of nine teams and schedules.

It should be noted that with the opening of the new high school in September, greater emphasis can be placed on girls' activities through the inclusion of a gymnastics and track and field program.

The School Recreational Program is designed to provide worthwhile leisure time activity for students and hopefully, at a later date, for residents of the community. In this setting the students have the opportunity to apply knowledge acquired in the formal classroom. The student has the opportunity to see science, art, music, physical education, and other curricular areas in a new dimension.

Recreation, therefore, becomes an integral part of education as it fosters attitudes and develops skill beneficial to youth and adults alike.

(From the Program Supervisor of Art)

The Art Department is actively committed at all levels to assist students in becoming aware of their world and themselves, and in understanding the relationship between the two. Being really aware of oneself and one's world involves multiple concerns affecting all one's senses and involving total living experience.

The very term "Art" has long ago outgrown its restricted definition of "good taste" or "beautiful things for the few beautiful people." Art is now sensory education. The art program attempts to give students a total experience that is just as concerned with the texture and strength of a concrete block as it is with little painted flowers. What does all this mean? It means that we are trying to create for our students a program that will make them more responsive to both the world of nature and the man-made world.

Our total program has been carried out to provide for each student the greatest variety of Art and non-Art media, in order to pace mental and physical growth with individual skills, interests, and concerns. We work on a skeletal framework which allows the specialists great flexibility to follow the needs and concerns of their students while at the same time assuring that certain basic skills be taught at each growth level.

We encourage our staff to find new avenues for inter-disciplinary learning. We actively attempt, in every way, to make all our methods of learning sensually satisfying. We have a flexible program that makes every attempt to serve the needs of the students and the classroom teachers. Due to fiscal restrictions and space limitations, we have not progressed as rapidly as expected in our projected five year plans. We are trying very hard to overcome these barriers and to find new ways to serve our students.

This past year, we produced a school-wide Festival of the Arts, an involvement which demonstrated to the community the many experiences which we offer our students. We plan another festival this year and hope that all interested members of the community will come and share this great experience with the students and the staff. Our department has been hit very hard with the shortages in the area of all types of paper and plastics and with the increase of almost 200% in the cost of some basic items. We have attempted to assess the situation as a challenge and find for our classes new forms of media that will be educationally sound and will still permit us to stay within our budget.

(From the Program Supervisor of Music)

The Music Department has two programs in each school - vocal specialists and instrumental instructors.

A general music education program is required through grade eight and elective in nine through twelve.

Elementary classes are visited by specialists each week. Grade seven meets twice a week for half a year while grade eight meets once each week for the entire year.

Musical concepts are developed through listening, singing, playing, moving, creating, and reading. The depth of any activity varies with the musical level within the class.

The elective music program for grade nine includes choral class, theory, group guitar and/or piano, and pop-rock. At the high school, students may elect music appreciation and theory.

All schools have performing vocal ensembles that meet regularly and perform for school and civic programs.

The instrumental program is elective at all levels. Instruction on orchestral string instruments is available starting in grade four while wind and percussion instruments are offered in grade five.

Small group instruction is scheduled within each building and most schools have both orchestral and band ensembles that rehearse regularly and perform for school and civic programs.

(From the Program Supervisor of Instructional Media)

The Chelmsford school library program continues to grow; in the collection of materials, usage by students, and instruction in library science. The school year, 1972-1973 has seen the completion of plans to centralize all cataloging and processing at the Instructional Media Center. The elementary school libraries have been serviced by centralization for two years; now the McFarlin, Junior High, and High Schools receive their materials ready for circulation to students and teachers.

A total of 5,435 books has been added to the various collections: 3,689 at the elementary level, 798 at the Junior High, 948 at the High School. Since September, 1973, 798 items of audio-visual software have been cataloged. These figures do not represent the total number of books and audio-visual software items that have been purchased during the year, for there is a sizeable backlog of material waiting to be cataloged and processed. Some of the films, filmstrips, recordings, etc. are distributed to the various schools. Many are stored at the Media Center and distributed to schools upon request by teachers.

All the large elementary schools have libraries staffed with trained library aides. The Harrington, Byam and Westlands libraries are open during the complete school day, while the North, Center and South Row offer only three hours of library service per day, due to the fact that these three schools do not have true library facilities. It is hoped that in September, 1974 these three schools will join the others in having libraries and full-time aides. As in past years, the elementary library programs have been aided in their operation by the efforts of many volunteer mothers, and their time and energy is invaluable to the aides, students, and teachers in each school. The three small schools, the East, Quessy and Highlands have active libraries.

An average of 110 books, periodicals, and A/V materials are checked out of the large elementary schools each day: a total of 135,000 items was checked out during the year. In addition to the circulating of library materials and maintaining the collections, the aides at each library offer story hours, help the students with reference services, and assist the two elementary librarians in instruction in library science. The Junior High library circulates an average of 30 books and periodicals a day. Teachers bring their classes to the library for reference work and library instruction. One hundred and eighty-four such sessions were held during the year. The School had an average daily circulation of 52 books and periodicals.

One of the greatest needs felt to exist in the Chelmsford Public School library system is in the area of instruction in library skills. Up until this year, formal structured instruction had been given only at the Westlands School, with informal orientations conducted at the Byam and Harrington schools.

In February, 1973, a pilot project in library science was inaugurated in the North School library/cafetorium. It was decided to begin this project at the third grade level since it is at this point in their school career that students have developed adequate skills in reading comprehension, alphabetization and mathematical knowledge to properly understand and work with the library tools. At the third grade the student is introduced to the basic rules of filing in the card catalog, how to locate fiction and non-fiction books, the principles of the Dewey Decimal system and the parts of the card catalog. Twenty half-hour sessions were needed to cover this material.

The purpose of the program is to make all students in the elementary schools familiar with methods of access to information so that they will be competent in using school, public, and university libraries. A curriculum for grades one through six has been developed, though at present this program can only be offered in grades one through three, due to lack of staff. The curriculum has been developed so that certain specific skills will be taught at each grade level, each new skill building on the one preceding it.

In September 1973, formal classes were begun at the Westlands, Center, Byam and North schools. Orientation and principles of good book care have been formally taught to the first and second grades at Center, Byam, Westlands and North schools.

This year Title II funds were assigned to the elementary library program with the intent of bringing all reference collections in these schools up to standards. Some of the Title II funds were used to purchase A/V materials to be held at the Westlands and Byam school libraries in an effort to continue the development of these two facilities as media centers.

A special purpose Title II grant was awarded the graphic artist/production specialist. This was used to purchase a collection of silent films, old comic strips, and classic radio plays, tracing the history and grammatical conventions of "cultural media."

During this year, the Media Center also expanded its capacity for bringing active media production directly into the classroom. Both the full-time graphic artist/production specialist and the media aide spent many hours in the schools, helping teachers and students to make animated films, jive-action films, video-tapes, slide-tapes, and radio-play recordings. These productions were usually conceived by the teachers with a particular curriculum goal in mind. The animated cartoons, for instance, involved subject-matter content from eighth grade English, fifth grade social studies, sixth grade science, and seventh grade mathematics.

With the acquisition of two new "porta-pack" video-systems, television became a medium for students at all grade levels to get their hands on, as opposed to past emphasis on the kind of "instructional television" which places the learner in a more passive role. The Media Center staff itself produced several "semi-professional" documentaries for classroom use including "A Visit to an Algonquin Wigwam," taped at the Children's Museum:

“The Making of Sasqua,” how a feature film company works; and “Thanksgiving Madness,” about the Garrison House.

The High School television studio has always been a student-run, production-oriented facility capable of most of the services of a professional station. This concept had reached a height by the end of the school year, 1972-73, when Channel 5 in Boston filmed a ten minute documentary there, which was later aired on their “Five at Large” program. The following year, a change in faculty supervisor, and in class scheduling brought a slight change of focus, with more effort directed toward tying student television production into the academic curriculum. Many students and teachers utilized television as a means of doing research and presenting reports in a variety of subject areas. Under the direction of the production specialist, students also continued to tape shows off the air for later closed-circuit broadcast in the classroom, to maintain a large collection of local and commercial productions on half-inch tape, to replay specific reels on request, and to produce “specials” for viewing by the whole school on Veterans’ Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, etc. In addition, a substantial number of sophomore students regularly utilize television facilities in connection with their English course in Language and Mass Media Communications. The inventory of audio-visual equipment in the schools has been completed, each item has been etched with an accession number. It is now possible to determine where each item is located, what repair services and parts it has needed, and the date the repair was made. The media technician has repaired over three-hundred and ninety pieces of equipment during the school year.

The staff of the Media Center and the school libraries throughout the town of Chelmsford are attempting to follow the guidelines as established in the Philosophy of the Instructional Media Center. In the light of the statement pertaining to communication, and the need to communicate not only within the system, but with the public library as well, a series of meetings has been held among the public library and school library administrators. These meetings have proved to be helpful and very worth-while. The chief result has been the establishment of a town union catalog which permits citizens to locate any school library/Media Center materials as well as materials held in the town libraries.

(From the Director of Special Education)

Chelmsford’s program for Special Education is a comprehensive one. The objectives and philosophy of the program for exceptional children are not different from those established for all children by the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association in four principles that apply to all children. In essence, they are: 1. the need for self-realization, which involves development of the child’s capacities to use basic educational (or academic) “tools”, and promotion of his health, cultural, and recreational interests; 2. development of a full awareness of human relationships, which involves an appreciation by the child of his role as a member of society; 3. education for economic sufficiency, which involves vocational training, placement, and follow-up; and 4. education for an assumption of as high a degree of civic responsibility as the child is able to attain.

The Chelmsford Public Schools’ Special Education department has been growing steadily in order to provide the services necessary to fulfill our educational goals for special needs students. To best provide these services, ten special needs classes have been established at the elementary and junior high levels. In September of 1974, with the opening of the Learning Resource Center at the new High School, our program will take another step forward, thus bridging the gap between the junior high and high school special needs program.

A special needs student, as defined by the State Department of Education, is one who exhibits difficulty in one or any combination of the following areas: Vision, Audition, Speech, Cerebral or Perceptual Functions, Physical Mobility, Condition or Function; Behavior, Mental Development or Maturation. Special needs students require special help and services. These services are provided by Resource Class teachers, Speech Pathologists, Learning Disability Teachers, Guidance Counselors, School Adjustment Counselors, Consulting Psychiatrists, Psychologists, and Teachers of the Deaf and Visually Handicapped.

In September of 1974, the State’s new Law, Chapter 766, will become effective in the Commonwealth. This law is the state’s comprehensive special education law which calls for a flexible and non-discriminatory system to identify, evaluate and provide for the individual needs of all children with special needs, regardless of disability. Features of the law include an emphasis on community programs and de-emphasis on the labelling of children.

According to the proposed guidelines, every school committee must provide the State Department of Education with a plan for educating each child with special needs. A description of programs within and outside the school system must accompany each plan, as well as a description of services that are anticipated but are not presently available.

A Core Evaluation Team will assess each child referred and recommend an educational program best geared to the child’s needs. The child’s parents will have the right to reject the educational plan if they believe that it is not in the best interest of the child. The amount of time a child will spend in the regular classroom will vary. The child may also attend special education classes only or work at home and/or at a treatment center.

Under the new law, compliance by every community is mandated. All school committees are obligated to provide a special education program. It is apparent by the passage of Chapter 766 that Special Education is considered a priority in Massachusetts. We, in Chelmsford, subscribe to this law and will continue to improve and expand our services in order to meet the needs of children who have special needs.

Guidance services, an area of commitment to pupils in need of special help, carried out its objectives quite effectively in 1973. Because of the great importance of guidance as catalytic agent between the child and the process of education, and because of the many changes in the scope and emphasis of guidance services over the past several years, especially at the elementary level, the School Committee authorized a study of the guidance program. The School Guidance Study Committee was appointed in the spring of 1973 and began its task immediately. Its membership was composed of representatives from the School Committee, administration, guidance counselors, teachers, pupils and parents. The Committee's report of its findings and recommendation will be presented to the School Committee in January, 1974.

It is hoped that this study of the guidance program will produce a better understanding of problems confronting the school community as well as more appropriate methods for dealing with these problems.

1973 was another eventful year at Chelmsford High School. Mr. George Simonian was appointed Principal after having served the school system for sixteen years as science Department Chairman, Science Coordinator, and more recently as the Director of Curriculum. He replaced Mr. John T. Conrad who retired after serving with great distinction for twenty-two years.

The first major decision of the year was to prepare the High School for double sessions in September. The enrollment of the school had increased to the point at which programs and the quality of education would have suffered had single sessions been maintained. Because of some of the disadvantages of double sessions, plans were made to divide the school community into two sessions, at the same time attempting not to disrupt the usual routine of the school in the areas of interscholastic athletics and intra-school activities.

School opened in September on double sessions with a minimum number of problems. Sound planning, staff and student cooperation, and parental and community understanding made it all possible. Also the fact that the new high school would be ready in September, 1974, made double sessions more bearable.

In preparation for the move to the new high school, a series of in-service sessions was planned for all staff members. Each week a two-hour session was held in order to prepare the faculty for the substantial changes and adjustments that the new school would bring.

The new high school is to be comprised of four houses. Each house is a school within a school. A house is an administrative sub-division composed of approximately 600 students, 30 teachers, counselors, and a dean. The house concept attempts to promote closer relationships among student and staff. It preserves some of the advantages of a small school while offering large school facilities and programs.

1973 must be viewed as a transitional year that presented many new features: a new principal, adjustment to double sessions, and preparations for a new high school.

The Junior High School began its second and last year on double sessions. An Industrial Arts and Home Economics program was incorporated into the eighth grade curriculum. These new learning experiences will provide our students with an awareness of career clusters and avocational areas that focus on manual dexterity and practical arts. It is anticipated that the program will be introduced into the seventh grade in September, 1974, thus completing the secondary Career Education Program.

In September, with the occupancy of the new Senior High School, the present high school will become the second Junior High School. Each of the two Junior High Schools will house grades 7, 8 and 9 (approximately 1400 pupils in the present high school building and 1000 pupils in the present junior high school building). The McFarlin School, which presently houses seventh grade pupils, will be used for elementary school purposes.

Kindergartens will be established in the Chelmsford Public Schools in September, 1974. In accordance with the recent research findings in the rapidly developing field of early childhood education, the kindergarten will have a balanced program of structured and unstructured activities, planned to support firmly the young child's need for intellectual content as well as for experiences which will help him develop socially, physically and emotionally. A kindergarten day of two and one-half hours will be established; there will be both a morning and afternoon session.

The School Lunch Program continued to expand during the 1973 school year. The total number of meals served to students was 829,039. Cafeteria receipts for the school year ending June 30, 1973, were $322,186. State and federal aid for the same period totaled $145,924. The total expenditures for the same period were $491,230. The primary factors in the program's operating at a deficit were the rise in labor and food cost and a decrease in the allocation of federal commodities.

The adult education program offers all citizens, regardless of age or previous experience, the opportunity to grow in knowledge and understanding, and to acquire technical and professional skill. This year 587 adults enrolled in 22 courses.

Although there inevitably remain unmet needs and areas of concern, the accomplishments of our schools, through the cooperative efforts of community members and town departments, have been many and significant. The town's unanimity of purpose in striving to provide quality education for all students, and the willingness of our townspeople and our families to work unstintingly toward this goal are most gratifying to the School Committee and school staff. Parents' response to the schools' invitation to perform volunteer services and to serve on study committees has been particularly gratifying.

The school enrollment on October first was 9,059. As compared to the enrollment of the previous year, the number reflects an increase of only 69 students. The elementary grades' enrollment decreased slightly and, as was predicted, the secondary enrollment continued to increase.

In grateful recognition for long years of dedicated, valuable service to the youth and citizens of the town, the School Committee, administration, colleagues, and citizens honored the retirement of the following employees.

Mrs. Abbie Arrants	Teacher, South Row School
Mrs. Doris Irvin	Teacher, Center School
Mrs. Ann Sides	Teacher, South Row School
Mrs. Gladys Dunigan	Teacher, Westlands School
Mr. Earl Shaw	Custodian
Mr. Frederick A. Hildreth	Custodian
Mr. Raymond A. Eno	Custodian
Mrs. R. Ilene Davidson	Secretary, South Row School
Mrs. Kathleen M. McMillan	Secretary, High School

It is the sincere wish of the School Committee and Administration that the retirees may find the years ahead satisfying and rewarding. To them goes our deep appreciation for having contributed so much to so many.

IN MEMORIAM

With the passing of Mrs. Jeanne White on May 1, 1973, Chelmsford lost a much loved and respected teacher. Mrs. White at the time of her death was a teacher for children with Learning Disabilities at the Harrington School.

* * * * *

Mrs. Violet Hopkins, Administrative Assistant at the Harrington School, passed away on December 12, 1973. The words left unsaid would have described an enthusiastic, generous, vibrant person whose capabilities were recognized by all who knew her.

Sincere thanks are once again extended to the town officials and boards, to the school personnel, to the Parent-Teacher Organizations, to the Educational Advisory Committee, and to the Citizens of Chelmsford for their cooperation and assistance this past year.

The proposed budget for the 1974-75 school year reflects the opening of the new high school, the introduction of the kindergarten program into the school system and the expansion of the services needed to meet the requirements of children with special needs as mandated by Chapter 766 which becomes effective on September 1, 1974.

The School Committee shares the taxpayer's concern over the fact that adequate support of our public school system appears to involve the imposition of an increasingly heavy burden on our local tax structure. This concern has prompted us to attempt every possible economy, short of those which might threaten to impair our present educational standards or facilities. We still consider it our duty, however, to work for the continued maintenance and improvement of our standards.

The budget recommended for the 1974-75 school year is contained in the Finance Committee's Annual Report and Recommendations.

NASHOBA VALLEY TECHNICAL HIGH SCHOOL REPORT OF DISTRICT COMMITTEE

During 1973 Nashoba Valley Technical High School has continued to grow in its ability and desire to serve the people of our district in the field of technical and occupational education.

The main force of our education effort is, of course, directed to the needs of our regular, day-school program. However, we have continued to diversify and update existing programs in adult education, special needs (our VIP program), Project MODEL, and Computer Assisted Instruction at all levels.

In our four year span our enrollment has increased to the point where we are now providing for the education of 634 pupils. Since our school was designed for only 490 students, we have provided for the additional students by leasing temporary facilities about three miles away from the main school building. This figure includes 8 post-Seniors and 21 VIP students, well above our original estimates and plans.

The School Committee recognizing the growing need for both immediate and long range growth has begun research into methods whereby our services may be expanded to provide the maximum in educational services to the district in the most economical manner. Planning committees have been formed to study all possible alternatives, while experts in education planning and concerned local citizens are being consulted. At the close of the year 1973, a questionnaire was distributed to every household in the district asking for input concerning a modified 45/15 plan — the extended school year — one possible direction in which we may move.

In 1972-73 our graduating class numbered 98. The 1973-74 school year will produce (at present figures) a graduating class of 126 seniors.

GUIDANCE

The Guidance services at Nashoba Valley Technical School are administered by a Director of Guidance, two full time Counselors and a Secretary. Guidance provides individual and group counseling, case conferences, vocational and education guidance, school and job placement, career education, recruitment of new pupils, orientation of new pupils at the school; testing for intelligence, achievement, aptitude, and interest follow-up studies of all graduates, and referrals to outside agencies for help with emotional and physical problems. Guidance is also responsible, in part, for public relations for the school.

LIBRARY

One area in which the school's growth has become most apparent is our library, which is serving as an efficient and economical means for coordinating the instructional materials and equipment for our school program. Academic and trade instructors bring their students in for library research.

Circulation statistics for the months of September and October 1973 has more than doubled those of the same months in the previous year.

VIP

The Vocational Interest Process Program provides a much needed specialized form of career education for pupils whose special needs would make it difficult for them to enter the standard day-school program. The program serves a dual purpose which is to provide the educational instruction necessary for these students and also to provide skilled training in their designated shop areas to enable them to become useful and self-sufficient citizens within their communities.

ACADEMIC/ENGLISH

The English department has added two new elective areas: creative writing and the study of modern media. These electives are for juniors and seniors, and it is hoped that more electives will become available as the school continues to grow.

The school's Computer Assisted Curriculum has also been expanded. Over four hundred students are enrolled in CAI programs in English, reading, mathematics and social studies in levels of difficulty ranging from remedial to advanced high school.

In the remedial area individualized testing has begun and will continue throughout the school year to determine grade levels and progress achieved by students in special programs.

ACADEMIC MATH/SCIENCE

The Academic Math/Science department continues to expand and to refine its curriculum to meet the needs of the students, and to provide the necessary support functions for the technical shop areas.

SCHOOL NURSE (NURSING SERVICES)

This year our school nurse has been able to take throat cultures for our students to find "strep" throats. This important test has been made possible through the Massachusetts Heart Association and the Massachusetts Department of Public Health who have provided the necessary culture kits and the laboratory services.

This fall the Nashoba Boards of Health provided the materials and womanpower to give Tetanus booster inoculations to all pupils in our school who had not been inoculated in the past ten years. This clinic is generally offered in the spring but our school nurse prevailed upon them to provide the service at the beginning of the year since this protection is so vital in a vocational school.

DRIVER EDUCATION PROGRAM

We consider Driver Education a Necessary part of the curriculum in our school since our graduates would be very handicapped going into industry without the ability and the legal right to operate a motor vehicle. Along with the day school Driver Education program, Nashoba has become known throughout New England for its innovative School Bus Driver Training Course.

The course was developed by two Nashoba instructors at the request of the Superintendent-Director who felt the great need for such a program. Instructors have worked with the Governor's Highway Safety Bureau to prepare a School Bus Driver Training Program for the State of Massachusetts conforming to federal standards.

During 1973 both instructors appeared as guest speakers before the Massachusetts Pupil Transportation Conference, the Massachusetts Safety Conference, and the New Hampshire Safety Conference.

They also serve on the board of directors of the Massachusetts Driver and Traffic Safety Education Association.

AUTO BODY - PLUMBING & HEATING DEPARTMENTS

This year, the one-year old Auto Body and Plumbing & Heating Departments were placed in full capacity status by the appointment of an additional instructor in each department, with a corresponding increase to the departments student enrollment.

DATA PROCESSING

The Data Processing Department, a late starter, has developed into a full and meaningful career training program that is currently available at Nashoba Valley Technical High School. Students learn how to communicate effectively with machines. They learn to speak and learn the language of automation. The aims of this course are to:

1. To prepare students for jobs in which they need to know how data is processed automatically, even though they may not be directly concerned with an electronic computer.
2. To develop, through the logic required by the computer, experience and skill in analyzing problems and laying out logical, step-by-step plans to solve them.
3. To acquaint students with the kinds of job openings in Data Processing and the qualifications needed to fill them.

A computer assisted instruction program is also available to all students of Nashoba Tech, through the Data Processing Department. We are currently using it in the academic areas such as arithmetic, English, and remedial reading. The computer is providing the diagnostic tool for determining what is known and unknown. It automatically selects the next appropriate learning sequence or suggests appropriate alternatives for each and every individual student. Educationally, the Data Processing Center at Nashoba Tech is truly unique. The computer assisted instruction program, guidance program and others are available and used by the school systems in the districts' towns by terminals connected between the towns' schools and the computer center.

"By-products" of our center are school and municipal government administrative services that are providing for thousands of dollars worth of savings presently and in the future, to our four district towns.

CO-OP

One of the most successful phases of our school is the Co-op Program where qualified Seniors are permitted to work in their respective occupations in properly approved firms on an alternate week basis.

The co-op program has proved to be a rewarding experience for our students and their employers; and the on-the-job productive work opportunity with bi-weekly remuneration tends to highly motivate the student and offer many valuable work experiences.

All of our departments have shown good growth and expansion, and in the process of proper occupational training through productive projects and jobs, have provided for many meaningful jobs done in our four towns with an emphasis on municipal and school department jobs; as well as, for private citizens. Space does not permit to identify the diversification and production of each departments work.

On August 21st of this year all the plans and specifications for the new addition to the Police Station were in the hands of General contractors bidding for the building. On October 4, 1973 the contract was awarded for the construction and completion of the addition to the present building. This contract was awarded to the lowest bidder as per state statute. The low bidder was the Able Construction Company, Box 395, Plaistow, New Hampshire. Ground breaking took place on October 15, 1973. Construction is underway on the addition, but some difficulty did arise in attempting to get the steel bracing, as steel shipments are slow and difficult to obtain.

This year we lost one man from our department. Charles Hillman transferred from our department to the Lowell Police Department.

While patrolling the highways and roads of our town this year, the mobile units have covered over 372,437 miles.

We would like to extend our sincere thanks to the Bournival Chrysler Co. of Lowell for donating our safety car.

We have eight mobile units on the road. Five units are marked and three are unmarked.

In conclusion I offer my sincere appreciation and thanks to the various officials and department heads, the Captain, Sergeants, Patrolmen and the citizens of the town for their continued help and co-operation. Because of their combined efforts I am sure Chelmsford is a better and safer place in which to work and to live.

FIRE DEPARTMENT

Frederick H. Reid, Chief

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen
Town of Chelmsford, Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

I hereby submit my report of the Fire Department for the year ending December 31, 1973.

Although the Fire Department hit a record high in calls in 1973, actual overall fire loss was much lower than in years past due to the increase in manpower, modern fire fighting techniques and our fire prevention program.

On March 23, 1973 the town was notified of a change in the insurance rating schedule. Specifically rated buildings were changed from 5th class to 4th class. This would include mercantile and industrial properties. Dwellings were changed from Grade "C" to "B". This has resulted in savings to both business enterprises and private homeowners.

This change in rating resulted from a survey of the fire defenses of Chelmsford conducted by the Insurance Service Organization. We feel this change was brought about primarily through the efforts of the fire department in effecting modern training methods and especially its system of pre-fire planning of major buildings and complexes throughout the town.

Training of personnel continues to be a prime consideration of the fire department. It is continuous throughout the year consisting of both indoor and outdoor drills as well as classroom instructions.

Undoubtedly the energy crisis will play a major part in the fire service. We are beginning to feel the affect. Several fires have occurred due to the reactivating of fireplaces after several years of idleness. We cannot stress too strongly the importance of having old fire places checked by a competent person.

A major concern to the fire department involves the transport, handling and storage of gasoline. Gas should be transported in approved safety cans and never stored in any building or part of any building being used for habitation.

However, gasoline may be used, kept, or stored in any building not used for habitation nor frequented by the public, without a permit, provided the total quantity shall not exceed seven gallons and provided the gasoline is stored in one or more metal or plastic containers which have been approved by the marshal. Such containers shall be kept away from all heating devices and shall not be opened in any area where there is an open flame or an electric or mechanical device that might cause a spark. If a container is used in an enclosed area, such area shall be suitably ventilated.

Precaution should also be used with portable electrical heaters. All electric heaters should be kept away from flammable materials.

The 1972 fire prevention car has been replaced by a 1973 model through the continuing courtesy of Bournival-Chrysler-Plymouth, Inc.

The 1969 Ford 4-door sedan used by the Fire Chief has been replaced by a 1973 Chevrolet.

I am recommending, and have made provisions in my budget for 1974, the up-dating of our rescue equipment as we are responding to an increasing number of accidents on Route #495 and Route #3.

I would again like to congratulate and thank the men of the department for continuing to maintain the high standard of courage and ability that has been shown in the past.

I wish to express my thanks to all town officials and employees for the excellent cooperation given to the fire department during the past year.

Plumbing Inspector, Civil Service William H. Shedd	Director of Public Health Thomas W. Morris, R.S.	Public Health Nurse Joyce Casey, R.N.

Water Pollution Control

In 1973 the Water Pollution Abatement Program continued to progress as five (5) apartment complexes, three (3) eating establishments, and one (1) large shopping center made long needed septic system repairs.

The status of the towns laundromats is in a state of flux, due to the uncertainty of State Water Pollution Control requirements which are in the process of changing. Therefore, no system approvals have been obtained from the state. Also repaired were one-hundred eight (108) individual residential systems.

The Board of Health issued eighty-nine (89) Sewage Disposal Construction Permits for new homes.

Administration and Management

On August 29, 1973 a policy of charging a $15.00 fee for percolation tests was adopted.

The sum raised by fees for percolation tests ($930.00) and Sewage Disposal Construction Permits ($2,654.-00) totaled $3,584.00.

Additional income is listed as follows:

Plumbing Permits (148) —	$ 1,420.00
Miscellaneous Permits & Trailer Park Fees	9,516.00
Total	$10,936.00

The total of $14,520.00 was realized.

Restaurant and Food Handlers Sanitation Program

The inspection program was set on a regular schedule and the effectiveness of this was evident. All food handlers were required to be tested for Tuberculosis and show evidence of such test by being issued a card from the Board of Health.

Fluoridation

The Board of Health ordered fluoridation of the community water supply at the September 11, 1973 meeting.

Public Health

During 1973 the Board of Health Nurse has been involved in following up cases of Tuberculosis and other communicable diseases and in visiting premature infants.

With assistance and cooperation of the School Nurses and Dr. Blechman, Board of Health Physician, immunization clinics were held for pre-school and school age children. Three-hundred forty-four (344) children in 1st and 12th grades were given DT Boosters. One-hundred (100) 9th graders received mumps vaccine. One-hundred seventy-five (175) 1st graders received Rubella. Five-hundred sixty-four (564) students received tine tests. Three series of pre-school clinics were held in the spring. A total of 53 children attended and received 111 immunizations.

The Nurse also began doing Mantoux (TB) testing of Chelmsford resident foodhandlers. Previously, Lowell Health Department had been doing this. A total of 211 were tested. Some 112 School Bus Drivers were also given the test.

Since the state is interested in learning the effectiveness of the more recent vaccines, epidemiologic investigations of 87 Mumps cases and 22 Measles cases were investigated.

The most important occurrence in 1973 was the Town Meeting appropriations for the 18-month transition period. This, along with increases in various departments, caused an $11.00 increase in the tax rate.

It is hoped that with the first half years' money already appropriated, and with judicious spending at the Town Meeting, this rate can be reduced.

The year 1974 marks the first time in the history of the town that the taxpayers will receive two tax bills. It is the year that we change from the traditional January 1 to December 31 year to the new fiscal year of July 1 to June 30, putting us in line with the Federal and State fiscal years.

This will probably require double work for the various departments, including the Assessors, but the town will benefit in that we will not have to borrow money in anticipation of taxes; and the new town meeting date will allow us to borrow in advance of the new federal, state and local fiscal year, instead of borrowing in arrears.

1973 was a fine year for the libraries in several respects: the number of new card holders increased 22% over 1972, circulation figures were 16% over the per capita Massachusetts average, despite our standard four week loan period, and we had an average of 4348 patrons per week. On other fronts, important contributions first by Fran Raab and Carol Good and later by new Assistant Librarian Susan Schleigh provided the impetus for both varied programs and much needed updating of our card catalog. Of much significance too was the creation of a public file at the Adams Library listing all material acquired by the school libraries.

ADULT AND YOUNG ADULT DEPARTMENTS

Circulation — 110,673

Physical changes in this department in 1973 included the addition of three comfortable modern chairs to the Reference Area and the completion, by the Friends of the Library, of the new periodical alcove which can now seat four commodiously as well as display most of the library's 300+ subscriptions. MacKay also benefited from Friends' generosity, adding two new chairs to the reading area. The downstairs stacks at Adams were rearranged to admit more light and seating.

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENTS

Circulation — 86,363

Bea Beaubien assumed charge of the Children's department at Adams in 1973, a year in which paperbacks, puzzles, games, and several new magazines were added to the traditional holdings there. In addition, children's records were transferred to that department in order to consolidate as much as possible all library materials of interest to young people.

ARTS AND MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Circulation — 29,085

Linda Webb formerly of the Children's Room assumed direction of this department in 1973. The collection was broadened to include all crafts and hobby books as well as periodicals. A group of original works by area artists was added to the circulation collection of prints and posters; the Room was also the site of 18 exhibits including pottery, photography, painting and children's art. MacKay Library began, in 1973, a record collection of its own which has received strong patronage.

PROGRAMS AND SPECIAL SERVICES

This year saw the continuation and expansion of programs in response to the support we have received for them. Weekly story hours for 3-5 year olds and twice weekly mothers' mornings were the on-going efforts which combined with Creativity Programs, Nature Workshops, Thursday Thing, Reading Club, Junior Book Reviews and Chess Classes to give Adams and MacKay program enrollments of 4830 people. In addition MacKay hosted over 750 school children on special tours, and Maggi Ainslie's 180+ visits to nursing homes and home-bound circulated over 2000 books. We were able to fill 120 interlibrary loans for our patrons and 200 copies of the library's first publication, HANDBOOK OF CHELMSFORD ORGANIZATIONS, were distributed.

PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING

- * Foremost, to a staff that grows daily in wisdom and grace and who continues to be the libraries' single greatest asset
- * To Audrey Carragher and the entire Friends of the Library organization whose work may not get all the public recognition due it but whose efforts, most notably the annual booksale, are inevitably enormously successful for the Library and its interests
- * To our 29 mothers' morning volunteers who keep a good thing going and all the people who gave their time and talent to our various young people's programs
- * To the Chelmsford Garden Club who both donated a lovely terrarium and gave the libraries superb Christmas decoration
- * To Betsy Bohl and the IMC for their cooperation and coordination in all things pertaining to increased or improved library services for Chelmsford
- * To our Girl Scout volunteers in general and to Liz Clarkowski in particular.

George E. Baxendale, Superintendent

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen
Town of Chelmsford, Massachusetts
Gentlemen

The following activities report is submitted by the Cemetery Commissioners for the year 1973.

The last of the unfinished roads in Pine Ridge Cemetery have been surfaced. The Cemetery Department has done extensive regrading and seeding to complete the task of landscaping the entrance to Pine Ridge.

Riverside Cemetery has had an additional three roads hottopped. Lots have been upgraded and seeded to improve the appearance of this cemetery.

Hart Pond Cemetery has had additional four-grave and single-grave lots made available.

The remaining town cemeteries were limed, fertilized and subjected to general repair.

This year has been an extremely busy one for the Cemetery Department. The exceptionally high humidity during summer was a deterrent, and trying to keep lawns cut and well-groomed was a problem.

The Cemetery Department regrets to announce the retirement of Mr. F. Hildreth Hardy, a member of the Cemetery Commission for the past twenty-five years. Mr. Hardy's expertise in stocks and securities, coupled with his diligence and extensive knowledge of town affairs made Mr. Hardy much valued as both an outstanding individual contributor and excellent labor relations arbitrator. His contributions have been very much appreciated and will be missed. We wish Mr. Hardy continued success in his retirement.

Due to the influx of new families to Chelmsford, the number of interments in our cemeteries has risen. During the year, we have had a total of 103 funerals, listed as follows.

Pine Ridge	59
Riverside	8
West Chelmsford	5
Fairview	20

Hart Pond	8

David P. Ramsay (resigned)

Mrs. JoAnne Schenk (new member)

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen,
Chelmsford, Massachusetts:

The Park Commissioners met to discuss and review the recommendations and operations for the 18 month period ahead. Donald P. Gray was re-appointed Superintendent.

David P. Ramsay resigned during the year and Mrs. JoAnne Schenk was appointed to fill the unexpired term by the Board of Selectmen and the Park Commissioners.

Flags in the Center were raised daily by the Fire Department. The flag at North Road and Worthen Street was raised by Captain William Thayer. The flag at Winship Square in West Chelmsford was cared for by Mrs. Mark and her son, and the flag at Gallagher Square by the Kiwanis Club.

The Park Department has been requested to find new quarters, so that their present quarters "the little brick schoolhouse", may be restored as a historic landmark.

The Recreation Commission has requested that the Park Department take over all their area maintenance responsibilities.

The Park Commissioners and Superintendent wish to thank the many Garden Clubs, Town Departments and other organizations for their cooperation.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

Several important recreation facilities were completed in 1973 as the initial stages in our long-range plans for creating much needed facilities reached maturity.

At the South Row School we completed both rough and finished grading operations for the entire site. Seeding was completed and the old back stop was moved within the property as a complete softball field was installed. The field will be ready for the 1974 season.

The second phase of the project, the construction of tennis courts, will hopefully commence later this year. What had been a useless sand pit will become a recreational facility for an area of the community that previously had none.

At the Robert's property several projects were completed. Most of the rough and finished grading was completed. The parking area was prepared for the finished material. Seeding was completed over a substantial area. Upon completion of the grading work, the P.A.R.C. group installed their pre-school playground equipment and the area was fenced and lighted. The community can be proud of the efforts of P.A.R.C.

Through the efforts of the Chelmsford Jaycees the Army Corps of Engineers opened a skating area that presently can provide a safe area for family skating.

The second stage of the Robert's property project to be proposed in 1974 will involve completion of the grading and seeding, as well as the parking area. The skating area will be enlarged and improved.

Our regular recreation programs for boys and girls continued to grow. Youth baseball and softball, basketball, hockey and skating and Pop Warner Football were successful in providing good programs for many hundreds of our children. Because of the continued support of the community Chelmsford enjoys the very rare position of not having to turn away any one who desired to participate.

Our summer programs included a community tennis tournament, tennis instructions, July 4th road races, junior olympics in cooperation with the Chelmsford Kiwanis, as well as specialized programs at 5 playgrounds.

It is again important to stress that we must expand our recreation facilities based on the growing demand from all residents. This is an area so long sadly neglected.

We are grateful for the assistance from all town boards and community volunteers. Such cooperative efforts will insure success in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

Paul Murphy

REPORT OF THE DOG KENNEL STUDY COMMITTEE - 1973

Carl W. Seidel
Peter Green

Frank Wojtas (Dog Officer)
Dr. M. Gruber

Mr. Charles Feeney (appointed November 1973)

During the year we assisted in the implementation of the recommendations of the Dog Leash Law Study Committee. A new assistant dog officer, Cheryl Constantine, was hired on a part time basis (to be full time beginning July, 1974) to patrol every morning in a newly acquired dog officers truck. A new dog officers phone number, 256-0754, now connects the caller with the police station where the complaint is recorded on a daily log. A new two way radio was purchased and will shortly be installed so the police can immediately communicate with the patrolling dog officer or his assistant. The dog officers' log will list the action taken on each complaint and will be submitted to the selectmen monthly.

We have set specifications for a new town dog kennel. The facility should have 20 pens, simple cement block construction, a small office - storage area, a lavatory and a garage for the truck (optional) as well as the normal utilities. We did not find any facilities in town that could be leased for such a function and decided that locations outside town were not feasible.

The committee looked into possible locations for the proposed kennel. We recommended an area that might have the security of other nearby town facilities but so far no decision or location has been made. It is planned that our recommendations will be formalized for the 1974 Town Meeting.

Jane S. McKersie

Lorraine A. Shea (resigned February 1973)

The Conservation Commission had a very active program during 1973. Major progress was made in all areas of Commission responsibilities, which have grown considerably. This year the increased workload required the Commission to increase the number of regular meetings held to two each month. The Commission normally meets on the first and third Tuesdays of the month.

Mrs. Lorraine Shea resigned from the Commission in early 1973 because of increasing family responsibilities. In her tenure as a member of the Commission she made major contributions to the Commission's objectives. The Commission welcomed Miss Janet Lombard as a member. She is well qualified to serve on the Commission. She is Vice-Chairman of the Chelmsford Land Conservation Trust and President of the Massachusetts Wildlife Federation.

The following is a brief summary of the major areas of Commission involvement during the year.

OPEN SPACE ACQUISITION

During 1973 the Conservation Commission made use of methods other than outright purchase to acquire rights in open space. Seeking and securing gifts of land or nominal purchases featured prominently in additions to town open spaces during the year. The following areas came under the Commission's jurisdiction:

Swains Pond: The 1973 Town Meeting approved the purchase of Swains Pond, located in North Chelmsford, and properties allowing access to the pond. Although the area itself comprises only 5-6 acres, its natural beauty and proximity to the Commission's Deep Brook Reservation make the property a significant addition. The Commission plans to explore alternatives to provide access between each reservation.

Wright Reservation Expansion: Approximately 20 acres of land was accepted as a gift from a land development corporation. The land is mostly wetland and is a natural adjunct to the George B.B. Wright Reservation. The Commission is grateful for the assistance of the members of the Board of Assessors for identifying the opportunity and establishing sound communication channels with the company involved, and to the Planning Board for speedy resolution of issues related to the development plans to allow the transaction to take place. This acquisition is an excellent example of cooperation between town boards for the benefit of the whole community.

Concord River Access: An agreement was reached during the year for a parcel of land adjacent to the Concord River in East Chelmsford to be given to the town. Although the parcel is quite small, it provides access to the Concord River in Chelmsford and will increase opportunities for water-based recreation. Final legal reviews were in process at the end of the year and the transaction with the company has not been formally completed.

Swain's Pond

Wright Reservation

RESERVATION MANAGEMENT

Crooked Spring Brook Reservation

Crooked Spring Brook Reservation was the focus of activity on conservation land during 1973. Funding for the reconstruction of a dam on the reservation was approved at the 1973 Annual Town Meeting. The Commission has been working with the USDA Soil Conservation Service to design a structure which will meet state requirements at minimum cost. Although it has required considerable time, the Commission believes the resulting cost savings worth the additional time required.

Some of the major areas of activity during the year were as follows:

— Several bird walks were conducted by Miss Phyllis Huff.

— A demonstration soil building program was begun with leaves deposited by residents and used to create a compost pile. The effort was inspired and led by members of the Golden Chain Garden Club.

— A temporary sandbag dam was constructed to provide a local skating area by volunteers from the Jaycees, Boy Scouts, particularly troops 8 and 212, individuals living in the neighborhood, and with the assistance of the Highway Department.

George B.B. Wright Reservation

Reservation activity continued during the year. Over three miles of trails were marked and cut including the newly acquired areas previously mentioned. Two rustic bridges were constructed across Putnam Brook which runs through the reservation. A skating area was provided by clearing brush in the low wet area and trees damaged during the hurricane were trimmed or removed.

Deep Brook Reservation

A trail was marked during the year which will facilitate access to the reservation and minimize the possibility of misuse of the adjacent privately-owned land. Consideration was given to alternative ways of integrating Deep Brook Reservation with the recently acquired Swains Pond area, and steps were taken to expand the reservation through a no-cost addition of an adjacent parcel of land.

Lime Quarry Reservation

No major development took place during 1973. The one mile trail, with its moderately difficult but rewarding view of the old quarry sites, continues to draw frequent weekend hikers.

WETLANDS PROTECTION ACT

During 1973, the implementation of the Wetlands Protection Act continued to occupy a considerable amount of the Commission's energies. The primary concern has been to protect the public interest by improving the tools for reviewing applications. Some of the major activities were:

— Thirteen hearings were conducted during 1973.

— Guidelines were developed, revised and published which set forth the standards by which applications will be acted upon and which assist applicants in supplying the information needed to insure the protection of the public interest.

— Materials such as aerial photographs and surfacial geology maps were obtained to assist the Commission in determining the significance of proposed wetland alterations.

— Members of the Commission attended a course offered by North Shore Community College which covered basic technical skills in hydrology and water pollution detection.

— The Commission continued work with the USDA Soil Conservation Service and State Division of Water Resources on the Water Watch program. This long-term program involves measurement of water levels of major waterways in Chelmsford on a continuing basis.

During 1973 it became clear that professional expertise was necessary to enforce the statute when the town was faced with possible legal action. The Commission thus moved to obtain proposals from a wide range of engineering consulting firms on the cost of obtaining adequate technical data to insure that the town will be prepared with adequate technical support for any legal action. The Commission is currently using one of the consultants to prepare supporting evidence for pending court action.

The members of the Commission would like to thank the members of the Board of Selectmen for their cooperation and support as the Commission continues to deal with the problems arising out of this recent legislation.

OTHER COMMISSION ACTIVITIES

Tree Planting Program

Again this year the annual tree planting program was a tremendous success with the fifth graders from the Center School assisting in bagging and distributing a tree to each first grader.

Natural Resources Inventory

Planning activities continued during the year with the completion of a "Natural Resources Inventory". The inventory identifies key areas in the town as potential conservation and/or recreation sites, and specifies various ways the land could be used. It was prepared by the USDA Soil Conservation Service at no cost to the town and was distributed to town agencies concerned with land use and recreation. A copy is on file at both Adams and McKay libraries for public use.

Flood Plain Zoning

The Commission worked actively on the Flood Plain Zoning Subcommittee formed by the Planning Board to bring before the 1973 Annual Town Meeting a Flood Plain Zoning article which was acceptable to various interests of the community. The passage of this zoning article is a major step in controlling development in flood-prone areas which invariably become a public burden in the event of a flood. This action also qualified the town to participate in the Federal Flood Insurance Program. Chelmsford's application was approved late this year. Mr. Robert E. Howe of the Conservation Commission chaired the subcommittee.

The Conservation Commission relies heavily on volunteer assistance from townspeople in achieving many of its objectives. Our expectations were exceeded during 1973 with volunteers filling sandbags, planning development alternatives, marking trails, clearing, cleaning and removing fallen trees. Limited space precludes thanking each group but the Commission is grateful for their continuing efforts to make Chelmsford a better place to live.

HISTORICAL COMMISSION

1802 School House

The Historical Commission continued its research on historical buildings and sites during 1973. The commission wishes to thank Mrs. Jane Drury, Mr. Henry Pontefarct, Ms. Carol Grezeszak, Miss Janet Lombard, Ms. Norma Thompson, Mrs. Barbara Morse, Mrs. Deborah S. Hinchiffe, and Mr. Alan Moyer who have, as friends of the commission, conducted almost all the historical research. As reported last year we have confined our efforts to houses dating prior to 1831 in accordance with the desires of the State Historical Commission. The commission would like to invite anyone with information pertaining to historical buildings or sites within the town, to share their knowledge by contacting the commission or Mrs. Drury.

With the many zoning change and variances being sought which effect historical buildings in our town, the commission has decided to make a determined effort to make the townspeople aware of the historical significance of such buildings and sites prior to any final determination. An example of our efforts in this area is the Parsonage belonging to the All Saints church on 1 Billerica Road, where the Commission ran a lengthy article in the local newspaper and then notified the new owners of the history of the building. We are pleased to report that the new owners felt moved to preserve the building and feel that they are to be commended for their efforts in its restoration. In order to encourage efforts by private parties in preserving our local heritage, the Commission has designed a handsome certificate to be given to citizens for efforts in preservation and restoration of Historical Buildings in the Town of Chelmsford.

The Commission wishes to commend the Garrison House Association for getting that house listed in the National Register of Historical Sites and offers to help any other person or organization in listing their historical buildings as we did with the Garrison House.

This Commission feels strongly that town organizations should work closely together towards mutual goals. For this reason we are pleased to have the opportunity to co-sponsor the scenic roads article in this years Town Meeting Warrant in conjunction with the Conservation Commission. We hope that there will be many more joint ventures in the near future.

Commission plans for the future include: Restoration of the 1802 School House, filing application for National listing of the school house, and Forefathers Burying Ground, Continuation of State listings and photographing of historic buildings, and continuation of our microfilming efforts. In addition the Commission is investigating the feasibility of establishing an historic district to cover the Town Common, the Unitarian Church, Forefathers Burying Ground, The Middlesex Toll House and The 1802 School House.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN ALDEN, Chairman
Historical Commission

HOME RULE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Gerald Silver, Chairman

Robert L. Stallard
John J. Balco
Thomas M. Dougherty

John J. Griffin
Charles L. Mitsakos
Carol Stark

Janet Snyder, Secretary

The Chelmsford Home Rule Advisory Committee is appointed by the Board of Selectmen for the following purposes:

1. Report on pending legislation that would have an effect upon the town.
2. Suggest language for response by the Selectmen to pending legislation.
3. Distribute pertinent bills to Town bodies.

4. Inform town boards of enacted legislation that effects them.
5. Suggest legislation to be filed on behalf of the Selectmen.
6. Upon request, advise Selectmen on town policies and by-laws, recommending changes where appropriate.
7. Conduct special studies at the request or approval of the Selectmen.

In fulfilling its responsibilities during 1973 committee members reviewed 9765 bills that had been filed for action in the Massachusetts General Court. Of these 120 were analyzed by the Committee and forwarded for review to the appropriate town agency such as the planning board, board of health, housing authority, police department, highway department, building inspector, school committee, and board of selectmen.

Upon enactment of legislation by the General Court, 1167 acts and resolves were reviewed by committee members in order to determine the impact of these new laws on the town of Chelmsford. Forty-nine pieces of legislation that seemed to have particular relevance to Chelmsford were forwarded to the appropriate town agency.

The Committee made an extensive analysis of the implications of the zoning enabling act and the local highway aid program. This review was followed up by a series of recommendations to the Board of Selectmen.

The Home Rule Advisory Committee was disappointed by the action taken on legislation it had filed regarding the assessment of taxable property in the cities and towns of Massachusetts. The bill would have required equalized valuations throughout the Commonwealth which in turn would have significantly increased the state aid received by Chelmsford. Two versions of the bill had been filed; one in each of the legislative branches. House Bill 2215 was killed and Senate Bill 1264 was merged with the other tax legislation and sent to committee and thus in effect killing the measure. Determined to equalize the valuation procedures in the Commonwealth and change the distribution of state aid, the Home Rule Advisory Committee has filed the bills for consideration during 1974 and is planning to lobby more actively for their enactment.

At the request of the Board of Selectmen, the Committee reviewed the proposed town charter which had been turned down by the voters in March. The Committee has recommended and the Selectmen have supported warrant articles relating to the holding of two sessions of town meeting, the wider distribution of the town meeting warrant, and the public announcement of openings for appointive offices. The Committee was unable to detect any strong public sentiment to place the charter question on the ballot again. However, the Committee has recommended making a professional study of the existing bylaws in order to index all present laws and legislative acts and in effect form a charter.

The Committee investigated the term of office for planning board members and recommended the petitioning of the General Court to reduce the present five year term in Chelmsford to three years.

During 1973 the Committee distributed 300 copies of the Appointed Committee Handbook through the selectmen's office. The publication which details standard operating procedures for town committees has been revised and is being reprinted.

With the continuing growth of Chelmsford and its related needs and with the increasing impact of state legislation on town government and town finances, the work of the Home Rule Advisory Committee has become most critical. Committee members have accepted this challenge and have appreciated the cooperation and encouragement of town agencies.

CHELMSFORD HOUSING AUTHORITY

Claude A. Harvey, Chairman

Roger W. Boyd

Robert L. Hughes
 Richard L. Monahan

During 1973 the authority moved from the planning phase to the construction phase of the housing for the elderly at the corner of Smith and Steadman Streets. Ground breaking ceremonies were held May 29th and completion is expected in the early spring of 1974. There will be 64 units and a community building.

Housing for Elderly

Applications for this housing were made available at the end of August and during the first two weeks 90 applications were returned, indicating the enthusiasm and need for this type of housing in the community. During the year 127 applications were received. These were numbered as they were received, each applicant scheduled for a personal interview to determine eligibility under the existing regulations, then each applicant was notified of his standing in the tenant selection process, taken in the order their application was received. The first 64 eligible applicants were assigned units, the next 30 eligible applicants have been assigned in order on the waiting list, and 33 were declared to be ineligible for various reasons, usually because they were not yet 65 years of age or were over the allowable income. Because of the large number of applicants having to be assigned to a waiting list — close to 50% of the number of units built — and the anticipated increasing need in the next few years as more people achieve the age of 65 in a time of great increase in the cost of living, the members of the authority are requesting approval of the townspeople at the Annual Town Meeting to proceed with the construction of additional elderly housing.

In June of 1973 the authority completed negotiations and acquired the property at 34 Middlesex Street in North Chelmsford. This was leased to the Greater Lowell Association for Retarded Citizens for the continuation of their program of providing a residence for Adult Retardates. A remodeling program for this property is presently underway. Working drawings have been reviewed by the Massachusetts Department of Community Affairs and work is expected to begin shortly. This concept of providing housing is new in Massachusetts and the Chelmsford program is being used as a pilot and model by the Department of Community Affairs for other such programs throughout the state.

The 1973 Annual Town Meeting ratified the establishment of a Rental Assistance program. Since funding for this is scarce we were allowed only 1 unit this year as a means for establishing Chelmsford in the budgeting of these funds. It is hoped that with more work in the coming year this program will be activated and will be especially useful for those people who have limited incomes but have not yet reached 65 years of age.

We are grateful to the people of the Town and the Town officials for their support and interest in our work. We meet the first Tuesday of each month at 34 Chelmsford Street and all meetings are open to the public.

Respectfully submitted,
RUTH K. DELANEY

SEWER COMMISSION

The Sewer Commission, during this past year, conducted several in-depth evaluations of alternative methods for abating pollution of the streams, wetlands and water resources in Chelmsford and the bordering Merrimack and Concord Rivers. The primary objective is to reduce pollution from the present level which is reputedly in violation of Federal and State pollution requirements. Any pollution control measures will have a significant economic impact on the town, and accordingly the Sewer Commission has devoted its efforts and committed town resources to consideration of effective approaches which promise to result in compliance with Federal and State requirements, but with minimum cost impact and hardship to the town.

The Sewer Commission, working in close coordination with the Chelmsford Liquid Waste Study Committee (CLWSC) formed as a result of Town Meeting action in 1972 and appointed by the Selectmen, received recommendations for a study of alternate approaches (relative to a central collection sewer system) to abating pollution in town. The recommendation by the CLWSC included a statement of work and the name of a consulting firm selected by the CLWSC to pursue such a study. The firm is that of Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Quade and Douglas, Inc. of New York City with a branch office in Boston, which was selected from a field of approximately 25 firms submitting detailed technical and cost proposals in response to a nationally advertised request for proposal. The Sewer Commission awarded a contract not to exceed $50,000 and 8 months duration in April, 1973 to Parsons to pursue the studies of alternate approaches. The Sewer Commission has been monitoring this study contract with support provided by the Chairman of the CLWSC. The final report for this study will be available on or about March, 1974.

The alternative study carried out by Parsons is basically a two part study. The first study consideration was to determine the extent of pollution levels in the streams and wetlands interior to the town. According to Parsons these were found to be in excess of tolerable levels dictated by the Federal and State standards. As part of assessing the pollution problems Parsons also considered potential future problems from the point of view of septic tank failures. According to Parsons over 60% of the town has conditions unsuitable for septic tank systems and as the town's population increases a greater incident of septic tank failures may be expected and this could lead to further increases in pollution of the streams.

The second part of the Parsons study dealt with technical and cost considerations of other pollution control measures, as alternatives to the central sewer system presented to the town in 1972 by the Sewer Commission. Parsons examined several methods for control of pollution in specific problem areas of the town. The approaches considered by Parsons were collection systems, but each involved much smaller capacity processing facilities. The results of these studies are nearing completion and not available for this annual report, but will be published in a final report due on or about March 1, 1974.

In addition to its direct involvement with monitoring of the Parsons' alternative study, the Chelmsford Sewer Commission continued engineering studies dealing with the proposed sewer system previously presented to the town in 1972, but for which funds for implementation were not made available by the town at that time. Subsequent studies were made of alternative sewer systems proposed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with the urging of the Federal Government Protection Agency (EPA).

Early in 1973 the Commonwealth developed a new River Basin Plan (known as Alternate #3) that would provide Chelmsford with limited capacity in the Duck Island plant now being constructed in Lowell. A broad scope River Basin Plan is necessary in order for the Federal Government to be able to underwrite 75% of the cost of the treatment plant and the major intercepting sewers. The proposal had an intuitive appeal. Your Sewer Commission attempted to analyze the impact of this development on the long range needs of the town and concluded however, that sufficient planning had not been undertaken to allow for a rational decision supporting Alternate #3. Thus, we petitioned the State and EPA to more closely consider the needs of Chelmsford in the next 20 years and to develop a cost effective plan to satisfy those needs. This appeal was presented to representatives of the Commonwealth in July 1973. The Sewer Commission also informed the Congressional Representative, Chelmsford's State Representative and the Senator to the State.

In order to document our concern that regional planning, as embodied in Alternate #3, might not be cost effective, we underwrote an economic analysis of the plan in comparison with the previous regional system (Alternate #2) which we updated to include more advanced waste treatment practices. This study cost $10,000 and, as a result of our intervention, was contained in the Northern Middlesex Area Commission's tentative endorsement of Alternate #3 which allowed for Chelmsford to proceed along the least costly route that would satisfy regional needs. The study was completed in November and used the new federal guidelines for determining cost effectiveness for the first time in this region.

This study shows that for the towns of Chelmsford, Westford and Tyngsboro to subscribe to Alternate #3 it would cost an additional $5,774,000 over an updated Alternate #2 and concludes that Alternate #2 is the most cost effective for Chelmsford and the Chelmsford region. Your Sewer Commission has therefore advised federal, state, regional and local agencies of the existence of a fully developed, more economical regional plan for our town which also has, in our opinion, a greater potential for encompassing sound environmental planning for Chelmsford. Recent impoundments of Federal grant monies make arbitrary assumption of large amounts of Federal funding risky. We are now awaiting the decision by the United States EPA on the River Basin Plan submitted by the Commonwealth.

In view of recent completion of various alternative studies, an in-depth digest must be made by the Chelmsford Sewer Commission. Following this, the most cost effective approach will be presented to the townspeople. As long as the pollution problems persist or continue to worsen with time, Federal and State pressure will be maintained. It is almost a certainty that this pressure will take the form of directives for the town to cease and desist polluting the streams, wetlands and rivers. Renewed directives will probably be backed up by the threat of court action and a timetable for implementation. In view of this, it is anticipated that the Sewer Commission, in the next year, may be requesting substantial amounts of funds to proceed with pollution abatement implementations, notably sewers. For the moment the Sewer Commission is not taking any direct action nor requesting funds from the town necessary to implement any system. The Sewer Commission is however requesting $14,000 to be supplemented with $21,000 carryover from previously unused professional fee appropriations. These funds will be used to perform engineering analyses related to specific details of the various alternative approaches under consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
 JOSEPH M. GUTWEIN, Chairman
 Chelmsford Sewer Commission

TOWN FOREST COMMITTEE REPORT

To the Selectmen:

Bruce Gullion and the Chairman of your Committee regret very much that Robert Clough, who for years served with us as the third member of the Committee, found it necessary to ask the Selectmen that he not be re-appointed for 1973. However, we are fortunate to have as a replacement for Bob, John Schnorr, who lives at 14 Gary Road, and, hence, has the Thanksgiving Ground Forest as his backyard. John is intelligent, energetic and enthusiastic and will, we are sure, serve the Committee with dedication.

The year 1973 saw very little done in either the Thanksgiving Ground Forest or the Mill Road Forest. This was due in part to the fact that your Chairman underwent three highly successful eye operations. It is with regret that he feels that, since he is approaching the age of seventy-five, a younger man can bring new enthusiasm and vitality to your Committee. Consequently, after fourteen (14) years on the Committee, he has asked the Selectmen that he not be re-appointed. He feels sure that Bruce Gullion, John Schnorr and whoever the Selectmen appoint as the third member of the Committee will carry out plans to make the forests more attractive to wildlife without an any way detracting from their natural beauty.

Sincerely,
 MARTIN K. BOVEY, Chairman

The Chelmsford Youth Center, operating at the McFarlin School on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, has evolved from an experiment to a viable public service for the youth of Chelmsford. The Center is now well staffed and has grown from serving a handful of youth each night to attendance ranging from 100 to 250 per night. More importantly, the Center has become more than just a place to hang around, the majority of the kids can be accounted for as participants in some organized program. The programs at the Center have been restructured and expanded. Advance program planning in the arts and crafts, coffeehouses and films, concerts, and field trips is allowing for increasing numbers of kids to be involved in these activities as well as making more efficient use of town funds and staff time.

Two new staff members have been hired to fill vacancies of resigning supervisors. These individuals have strong backgrounds in athletics which has served to make a more well rounded youth center staff. The athletic program is presently undergoing revision with the assistance of these new supervisors.

The past year has been spent by the committee in solidifying rules to be followed and, with the staff, attempting to broaden and strengthen the programs offered. It is very gratifying to report that these efforts have been rewarded with an increase in attendance and activity by the kids.

The plans for the coming year are to further broaden the scope of operation both in terms of the age group served and the type of activities offered. Plans have already been made to significantly extend the number of hours the Center will be open beginning in mid June of 1974. This expansion will be accomplished with a very modest increase in budget.

We look to the coming year to be as productive and growthful for the Chelmsford Youth Center and its participants as the last.

At the last Annual Town Meeting it was voted to accept the preliminary report prepared for us by the Engineering Firm of Fay, Spofford and Thorndike. It was also voted that the Selectmen be authorized to borrow one million dollars for the preparation of contract documents, the solicitation of bids for the reconstruction, and the construction itself.

The Committee interviewed several firms that had expressed a desire to become a part of the planning and rebuilding phase of the project and after careful consideration, we recommended the firm of Fay, Spofford and Thorndike to prepare the final working plans and specifications to the Selectmen, who in turn awarded them the contract for said work.

A Subcommittee has been appointed and charged with the responsibility of making recommendations on the recreational phase of the project. This would not be reimbursable under the legislation sponsored by Representative Bruce Freeman. However, monies could be available from the Housing and Urban Development Departments "Open Space Program." The Department of the Interior Bureau of Outdoor Recreation also funds projects for recreational facilities, and Massachusetts Department of Public Works, Division of Waterways, administers funds for construction of boat launching facilities and access to waterways. These and other agencies will be contacted for technical and financial assistance.

Before any of the authorized funds are expended, the reviewing agencies (State Flood Relief Board; Massachusetts Department of Public Works, Division of Waterways; Massachusetts Department of Natural Resources, and Local Conservation Commissions) must review reports, plans and other available data to ascertain the extent of participation and suitability of the construction proposed.

Hopefully, actual construction of the dam will begin in the spring.

ANNUAL REPORT OF REVOLUTIONARY WAR BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS COMMISSION

George Adams Parkhurst, Chairman

John C. Alden
Walter R. Hedlund

Vincent J. R. Kehoe
J. Pery Richardson

With Bicentennial programs rapidly taking shape, perhaps the most important job of the Commission is to clarify, in the minds of Chelmsford residents, the meaning of "Bicentennial Celebration." It is NOT, as some have assumed, a few parades, carnivals, or public spectacles. But rather it IS a series of programs and projects to: (1) publicize the many facets of Chelmsford's unusually rich historical heritage and the part we have played in the development of this great country; (2) to restore, or at least save from irretrievable loss, our historic sites and buildings; (3) and most important of all, to make our town, and thus our state and nation, a better place in which to live.

It is this third objective that has the greatest potential for meaningful expression. The field is unlimited and includes, among others, youth, the elderly, the community in general, all ethnic and religious backgrounds, the environment, and local government.

The Commission is anxious to hear from groups or individuals who wish to undertake any worthwhile, non-commercial projects that are not in conflict with the spirit of the Bicentennial. Programs should be of lasting value and designed to leave a permanent legacy after the Bicentennial has come and gone.

The first Commission-sponsored event took place on April 16, 1973 when several hundred Boy and Girl Scouts and adults from Chelmsford and the surrounding towns walked "The Chelmsford Trail to Concord" over the route taken by the Minutemen in April of 1775. This event will be held annually as part of the Patriots' Day celebration and is expected to attract over 1000 walkers by 1975.

The guide post for our Bicentennial Celebration should be: "We can best memorialize what has gone before by what we make of it today and tomorrow."

TREE DEPARTMENT

Myles J. Hogan, Tree Warden

During the past year, this dept. has received 56 requests. Most of the requests were for pruning or tree and stump removal.

The most hazardous of these requests, plus a left over work load from the previous year were reported to the Board of Selectmen, informing the board of a constantly growing work load.

Due to budget cuts of the previous 3 years followed by a complete lack of funds in 1973, this dept. was unable to respond to most of the requests we received this past year.

As 1973 progressed, I felt many of these requests were becoming a serious liability to the town. At this time, the Board of Selectmen requested a detailed report on all trees demanding immediate attention.

After a complete survey of all street trees, it was reported that 109 trees were in hazardous conditions.

Also, an estimate of cost was supplied with the report. A figure of $15,000 (similar to the depts. 1973 budget request) was quoted.

At present, the fate of the 109 hazardous trees rests with the Finance Committee.

Presently a committee has been formed to study the feasibility of establishing a tree dept. with equipment of its own. I am convinced after viewing other towns with full time depts, that Chelmsford does not need the expensive overhead that a dept. of this kind would require.

I would like to thank all depts. who have assisted the Tree Dept. in its year of austerity.

MOTH DEPARTMENT

Many reports of Gypsy Moths were received throughout Summer and early Fall.

In most cases fortunately, this insect was not the problem, instead an invasion of the Fall Webb Worm was viewed throughout the New England area.

This insect does not damage most trees the first year. However, if successive defoliation occurs, the trees will slowly decline, causing death to some species.

In the near future, a responsible program must be initiated. Not too far south of Chelmsford, many are experiencing what problems the Gypsy Moth and other insects can cause.

Respectfully submitted,
MYLES F. HOGAN

DUTCH ELM DEPARTMENT

Since we have stopped our spray program, many of our Elms are rapidly declining.

In the past year, Elms of large size could sometimes be saved by the removing of any visibly diseased wood. However, in 1973 with no funds available it was impossible to continue this method. Many Elms we could have saved are now dead, presenting a more costly program consisting of their complete removal.

There are presently 48 diseased Elms throughout town.

When funds are available the diseased Elms will be removed immediately.

EMERGENCY EMPLOYMENT ACT

The Honorable Board of Selectmen
Town of Chelmsford
Chelmsford, MA

Gentlemen:

The Emergency Employment Act Office for the Northern Middlesex Consortium of Towns was established in the Center Town Hall on October 19, 1971 to service thirteen (13) Towns. The Town of Chelmsford is the Sub-Agent to the Program Agent, The Executive Office of Manpower Affairs.

The purpose of the Federal Emergency Employment Act of 1971 was to employ the unemployed and underemployed according to Federal and State guidelines to fulfill unmet public service needs.

During 1973 $311,000.00 in Federal Funds were received to be allocated for Wages, Salaries, Fringe Benefits, Training, Supportive Services and Administration. Fifty-nine (59) participants were employed during 1973.

Eleven (11) of these were residents of the Town of Chelmsford, 159 individuals were employed since the beginning of the Program and many who applied and found to be ineligible were placed in unsubsidized employment in the private sector.

At the present time the Program is being phased-out and will terminate June 30, 1974.

It is estimated that $1,200,000.00 of Federal Funds will have been expended during the 32 months of operation.

Respectfully submitted,

John R. Clark
Project Director

ANNUAL REPORT - DRUG ABUSE TASK FORCE

In March 1970, the Board of Selectmen voted to establish a Task Force on Drug Abuse for the Town of Chelmsford. The direct result was that Chelmsford became the first community in the Merrimack Valley to become a member of SHARE Inc. - A comprehensive program of Human Services. SHARE'S involvement in the Town of Chelmsford is as follows:

1) Financial Summary:

SHARE'S total income (Jan. thru Dec. 1973) - $587,257. of this total Chelmsford contributed $18,860 or 3.2%. SHARE expended $35,495 or 6% of the total income in service to residents of the Town of Chelmsford. Thus for every $1.00 paid by Chelmsford, SHARE obtained $23.52 in State and Federal Funding.

2) Service Summary (Jan. thru Dec. 1973):

Anabasis House Facility — a 24 hour residential treatment facility which is based on the family model. It is a drug free program which functions as a therapeutic community that welcomes people with emotional problems as well as drug related problems. The house is licensed by the Department of Mental Health and has a staff of 7, 2 of whom have Master's degrees. Three (3) residents of Chelmsford were clients at the house during 1973.

The Outpatient Clinic (Methadone) — The clinic offers a broad range of programs including methadone maintenance, methadone detoxification, and drug free therapy. SHARE does not believe in permanent methadone maintenance but rather a protracted withdrawal where the client is slowly weaned from medication in conjunction with intensive counseling and group therapy. All clients of the clinic are also offered the following services: vocational testing and counseling, job placement, medical examination and follow-up work as indicated, family therapy, marital counseling and educational services. The Methadone program follows Federal rules and regulations on admissions and program controls. Dr. Ray S. Gilmore, who holds the Federal license for Methadone, is the program's Medical Director. Eleven (11) residents of Chelmsford were clients at the clinic during 1973.

The Adolescent Counseling Center (Morningstar) — The center concentrates on adolescents and their problems at home, in school, and outside of school. Services offered include individual, group and family counseling, programs in schools with teachers, students, administrators, and counselors. The Morningstar staff also is actively engaged in community outreach - that is meeting the adolescent in his local environment and helping to resolve some of the problems faced by the adolescent. Forty (40) residents of Chelmsford were clients at the center during 1973.

Cambios — a drug free outpatient treatment center providing group and individual counseling, educational services, and job training and development. One resident of Chelmsford was a client at the center during 1973.

SHARE also provided Chelmsford with the following:

Rent-A-Kid program for part-time jobs.

Hotline services available on a 24 hour a day basis.

Social seminar

Parent's Workshop

Coffee House

Outreach and in-school counselors.

The Task Force wishes to express its appreciation for support given by the Board of Selectmen.

PURCHASING DEPARTMENT

Robert Olson, Purchasing Agent

The Honorable Board of Selectmen
Town Hall
Chelmsford, MA

Gentlemen:

The second year of operation of the Purchasing Department again resulted in savings for the Town. Working closely with department heads, committee chairmen, and elected officials, this department was able to accomplish

- a reduction in invoice for "1972 Annual Town Report" from $4360. to $2500. because of vendor discrepancies.
- a savings of $4.45 per ton of road salt compared to the previous years price and a potential use of 5500 tons.
- by negotiating the cancellation of contracts for the cherry picker and truck returned $30,000 for other town use.
- researched and recommended the installation of gasoline storage tanks, long before Town owned facilities become a condition of supply. By negotiating an open ended letter contract before the energy crisis we are reasonably assured a supplier for gasoline.

Additional accomplishments not listed reflect about $100,000 dollar savings.

This department operates primarily to save money and to obtain a quality product at a fair price delivered on time.

Respectfully submitted,
Robert E. Olson

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ENVIRONMENTAL ADVISORY COUNCIL

Town of Chelmsford

Ina B. Greenblatt, Chairman

Richard B. Codling

Dr. Clara M. Refson

Dr. Ethel N. Kamien
Priscilla B. Hincley
Mary M. Wadman

The Chelmsford Environmental Advisory Council continued its efforts to increase public support for the recycling program. The world-wide energy and paper shortages emphasized the importance and profitability of the Town's recycling activities. The September newspaper pick-up demonstrated that with sufficient public support the Town could make money on recycling. A study was initiated of the feasibility of expanding the recycling program to include bottles, cans, and other recyclable wastes with collection to be performed by private vendors on a contract basis.

The Council's study of mosquito control continued in anticipation of Chelmsford's mandatory one year participation in the newly established Central Massachusetts Mosquito Control District beginning in 1974. The preparation of a comprehensive report on environmental issues involved in mosquito control programs was initiated and will be submitted to the Board of Selectmen early in 1974.

The CEAC also continued its study of insect diseases affecting Chelmsford's trees and made recommendations on the environmental aspects of programs for their control. A survey of recent Massachusetts snowmobile legislation was initiated with recommendations submitted to the recently established committee on snowmobile operations. Liaison was established with the Bicentennial Committee for the purpose of introducing environmental considerations into the committee's planning. CEAC hopes to increase its contributions to this committee during the coming year.

Finally, the Council intensified its efforts to bring accurate and timely environmental information to the people of Chelmsford. For this purpose, contact was made and maintained with a wide variety of individuals and groups throughout the country concerned with environmental matters. The result has been a steady flow of current environmental information into the Town. Members of the Council have disseminated this information through newspaper articles, speeches for civic organizations and personal contact with members of social groups in the community.

Much of our progress during the past year could not have been made without the cooperation and support of many townspeople and Town officials. Thanks should be given to Mr. Charles Mitsakos, Social Studies Coordinator for the Chelmsford School Department for increasing the awareness of both teachers and students of the Town's environmental problems. Thanks is also due to Mr. Robert Olson, Town Purchasing Agent, for his assistance in improving Chelmsford's recycling program. Appreciation is also due the editors and staffs of the Chelmsford Newsweekly, The Chelmsford Sentinel and the Lowell Sun for their cooperation in printing materials on environmental subjects. Finally, a special vote of thanks should be given to Chelmsford's Senior Citizens whose active support of environmental programs is an example for us all.

REPORT OF THE PLANNING BOARD

The Planning Board organized for the year 1973 with Timothy J. Hehir as Chairman, Thomas E. Firth, Jr. as Vice Chairman, Peter J. McHugh, Jr. as Clerk and Stephen D. Wojcik as delegate to the Northern Middlesex Area Commission. 1973 was a good year for the Planning Board in a legislative sense with all articles submitted to Town Meeting being approved that were recommended by the Planning Board. Amongst these articles was monies appropriated for the Phase I updating of the Chelmsford Master Plan. This Phase I updating is now nearing completion including a land use map, updated subdivision and zoning by-laws and suggested zoning categories and areas. A report of Phase I will be submitted to the proper boards and committees and will then be presented to the general public through hearings and a warrant will be prepared to be submitted at a town meeting for approval.

Respectfully submitted,
TIMOTHY J. HEHIR, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMUNITY ACTION COMMITTEE

Local Community Action Committees were originally liaisons between the Towns and Community Teamwork Inc. of Lowell, which organizes anti-poverty programs with Federal Agencies and funds.

In 1973, after cutbacks in many Federal Programs, the Chelmsford CAC voted to work independently of CTI in order to continue the programs in which it was currently involved.

HEADSTART, which is a Federally sponsored program of pre-school education for limited income families. Once again a site was obtained for our present Headstart class — this is being held at the West Methodist Church, West Chelmsford, Massachusetts.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD YOUTH CORP, which provides in-Town work for Limited income teens.

CONCENTRATED EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM, which re-trains currently unemployed adults for new careers.

In addition, funding for the position of Town Aide was withdrawn by Community Teamwork Inc. Town funds were approved at Town Meeting for a Town Aide.

Once again, the Headstart youngsters enjoyed a Christmas party . . . this time sponsored by the Chelmsford Police. Hats and mittens were made for youngsters by our senior citizens.

The town aide can continue to make Chelmsford residents aware of programs available to them through federal agencies.

The Community Action Committee met with members of Community Teamwork, Inc. to discuss the feasibility of food stamps in lieu of the food commodity program. Food stamp program looks very promising.

Officers of the Chelmsford Community Action Committee are as follows:

John P. Cryan, Chairman
Rev. Harry A. Foster, Vice Chairman
Thelma C. Stallard, Recording Secretary
Bernice H. O'Neil, Corresponding Secretary
Thelma C. Stallard, Treasurer (pro-tem)

REPORT OF THE CIVIL DEFENSE COMMISSION

Charles Koulas, Director
Walter Hedlund, Deputy Director

MEMBERS

George Brown
George Dixon
William Edge

Walter Edwards
Robert Olson
Frederick Reid

The Civil Defense Commission was increased from seven members to eight members. Each member was assigned special duties to work with the various departments in the town.

The necessary program papers were completed and accepted by State and Federal Civil Defense agencies, which made the town eligible for Surplus Property and matching funds. Some Surplus Property was purchased from the Taunton Surplus Property Supplies Department at substantial savings to the town.

The Communications Center participated in the monthly drills with Area I in Tewksbury and other towns, and we are grateful to our Communications Officer Mel DeJager for the time and effort he has put into the Communications Center.

The Auxiliary Police has been very active this past year. The members have spent many hours training in First Aid, Riot Control, Rescue work, etc. They maintained and repaired the Auxiliary Building and are repairing the Surplus Property generators which will be used for auxiliary power in any emergency. The Police Auxiliary Rescue Truck will be ready to be put into emergency operation in the near future.

The On Site Assistance Project for Chelmsford was completed by the State and Federal Civil Defense Agencies and their report has been forwarded for future action. An excerpt from the report reads as follows, "As an overview, the public officials within the community have reacted extremely professionally and responsibly in each of the two disasters that have occurred. The interview conducted as a part of this program revealed an extensive responsibility and mutual cooperation of all departments in combatting the effects."

This speaks well of the fine cooperation that we have had from the Board of Selectmen and the Heads of all the various Departments in the town.

NORTHERN MIDDLESEX AREA COMMISSION

To the Citizens of Chelmsford:

The Northern Middlesex Area Commission serves the comprehensive regional planning agency for nine communities in the Northern Middlesex Area including Billerica, Chelmsford, Dracut, Dunstable, Lowell, Pepperell, Tewksbury, Tyngsborough, and Westford.

The Commission carries out its work under a locally representative Commission, and as such serves as a forum for local officials. The future of regional planning as a locally directed effort depends in great part on continued and increased intermunicipal cooperation. To this end, the Commission has, in conjunction with other regional agencies in the Commonwealth, petitioned for a revised regional planning law to enable a more decisive role for the Commission in developments of regional impact. The Commission believes that the enactment of these revisions will improve the ability of local government to solve regional problems.

The Commission activities reported below are representative of the comprehensive nature of the Commission's work. That is, there are clear inter-relationships between housing and water quality and transportation and land use. It is the comprehensive areawide role which is unique to the Commission and thus enables it to serve as a "Metropolitan Clearinghouse" for State and Federal projects.

Organization:

The towns are represented by a selectman, a planning board member, and an alternate named by the selectman. A city councilor, a planning board member and an alternate named by the city manager represent the city. Together these delegates form the Commission which usually meets monthly at its offices at 144 Merrimack Street, Lowell (phone 454-8021).

Last year's Annual Report describes the general organization and functions of the Commission and its role in town affairs. Included is a discussion of the special relationship of area wide planning to certain state and federal funding programs.

In this Annual Report the focus is on particular plans and policies being developed by the Commission and its staff. Many citizens and town officials have reviewed these at "workshops" held in each Town and the City during this past November and December.

1. LAND USE: The area-wide land use plan has been detailed within the framework of the "Proposals for the Future Growth and Development of the Northern Middlesex Area" prepared in 1972. The plan calls for a return to the traditional New England Village concept characterized by clustering residential and commercial uses in compact centers while outlying areas, especially those physically less suitable for development, are subject to very sparse development. The plan has been designed to accommodate about the same amount of residential population as permitted by the current zoning, but it calls for more efficient use of land in housing the new population. The plan argues for less dependence on the automobile, for revitalization of existing Town Centers, and encouragement of new neighborhood centers. The plan seeks to minimize the cost of municipal utilities and services and to maximize the preservation of open space and wetland areas. To transcribe the plan into reality, there will have to be adjustments in current land use regulations, especially zoning. In 1974 the Commission expects to make specific zoning recommendations to its members which will "phase in" the regional land use plan.

2. WATER QUALITY: Very much related to the wise use of land are the Federal Water Quality Amendments of 1972. Congress has required that there be no "waste loading" of our rivers and streams by 1985. This means that the currently acceptable secondary level sewage treatment plant is no longer enough. It also means that the in-ground septic tank may not be up to standard if it amounts to a "non point" source of waste loading. The Commission is working with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in a water quality management study of the Merrimack River Basin. The study, scheduled for completion in mid 1974, should provide a solid basis for the state and local water quality decisions which must be made in response to the 1972 Act. These decisions will involve area-wide facilities, and the financial and institutional arrangements necessary to insure maintenance of the water quality standard. Land use must be regarded as an essential element of the regulatory scheme in order to channel growth to areas where the treatment system will not be overloaded.

3. SOLID WASTE: Although prepared in 1971, the Commission's solid waste management plan is still current and applicable. The 1972 Water Quality Amendments point up the close relationship between liquid waste treatment and the domestic refuse problem. A combined facility is a likely possibility. The Commission petitioned the General Court for authorization to serve as a solid waste planning board for the region. With this authority, the Commission would be better able to package its solid waste ideas and bring them to Town Meeting.

4. HOUSING: Major advances were made in 1973 toward adoption of a "fair share" housing plan for the region. A report on "Deficits and Deficiencies in the Housing Supply" documents the extent of the housing problem in the Northern Middlesex Area. A summary "Housing Plan for the 70's" has been widely distributed for local discussion prior to adoption by the Commission. The plan indicates the need for new construction, rehabilitation, and income supplements to overcome current deficiencies in the region's housing supply. An allocation is made to each community for the region's total based upon a fair share formula which considers vacant land, income levels, and jobs.

To assist in implementing the plan, the Commission has asked the General Court to substitute an adopted "fair share" plan for the rather arbitrary housing allocations in the so-called "anti-snob zoning law", (Chapter 774 of the Acts of 1969), and has petitioned for a regional housing authority, and a housing court for the County.

5. TRANSPORTATION: The Commission, in conjunction with its Transportation Coordinating Committee and under a cooperative agreement with the State Department of Public Works and the Secretary of Transportation and Construction, is playing an active role in transportation development in the area. Major projects considered in 1973 were the proposed Route 213 over the Merrimack, Lowell's downtown traffic problems, and the recently enacted Transit District Act (Chapter 1141 of the Acts of 1973). In 1974 the Commission will be working closely with local officials to implement this Act, and to provide technical support for the Selectmen and City Manager who would serve as the Transit Advisory Board.

BUDGET:

This year resignations were received from Allan D. Davidson and Walter S. Dronzek. Mr. Dronzek served as chairman in 1972 and part of 1973. We sincerely thank both men for their service to the commission and the town.

The Commission worked on the Industrial Financing Authority Article for the Annual Town Meeting. Much research and discussion was necessary. If passed this authority will be able to assist new businesses, to Chelmsford, receive financing through municipal bond funding.

We also updated the list of business employers of the town. An updated zoning map was secured and prepared for distribution to Commissioners and Industrial Developers.

An addition to this annual report is currently being prepared. This will contain information of interest to Industrial Developers who might be interested in locating in Chelmsford. Employment, tax and demographic data will be included.

Again we would like to thank those town employees and elected officials who helped us this year.

Respectfully submitted,
Philip L. Currier

CATV ADVISORY COMMITTEE REPORT - 1973

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen
Chelmsford Massachusetts

Cable television, or CATV, is to some the harbinger of a "communications revolution" which offers the good life by bringing a vast array of entertainment, educational materials, and expanded communications (e.g. computer access) into each house in our community. To others, CATV is the harbinger of the subjugation described by Orwell in "1984". The debate rages with participants drawn from universities, broadcasters, think-tanks, CATV operators and others; all are articulate, vocal and persuasive with their arguments. What does CATV offer Chelmsford? Should CATV be implemented now, later, or never? Are there educational applications for our schools or in our homes? What about considerations of privacy and rights of access? Who decides who has access to the cable and what programming is permissible? Who should own the cable system? Private enterprise? — The town? — Or some mix of the two? Who has the answers to these questions? Experts from the universities? — Think-tanks? Perhaps some of the experts are able to shed some light on possible answers, but definitive answers that deal with the issues in Chelmsford can best be answered by those familiar with the needs of the town — YOU!!!

With this realization and a concern with recent state CATV regulations, the Board of Selectmen formed an advisory committee on CATV in May of this year. The efforts of the committee during the past half-year have been spent in developing an approach to provide answers to some of the previous questions, and in self-education in order that the committee can serve as a catalyst for the town in addressing some of these questions. With the approval of the 1974-1975 budget request, we plan to initiate a program oriented towards providing a forum in which the town can understand the implications and alternatives posed by the introduction of CATV in Chelmsford. Such a forum will result in the town addressing and answering: Do we want CATV? If yes, what shape should it take?

For the Chairman

RICHARD E. ARCAND, Vice-Chairman

HISTORY

This religious society was first gathered in Wenham in 1644. In 1655, the Church with its minister, John Fiske, removed to Chelmsford.

The first meeting house was built upon this present site.

In 1710 a new meeting house was erected and later a belfry was added in which to place a bell purchased in 1680.

It was not until 1830 that the separation of town and parish took place and the following year the parish elected its own officers distinct from town officials and became self supporting. The basement of the church building however was still used as the Town Hall until 1879.

The present meeting house was erected in 1842 after a fire had destroyed the old Meeting House.

On Sunday morning, December 18, 1955 a ground breaking ceremony was held and construction of our present addition began. A year later this addition was completed and dedicated to the glory of God and to the service of man on Sunday, September 23, 1956.
